Telecom Argentina S.A.
announces dividends for the fiscal year ended
December 31, 2009.

Buenos Aires, April 29, 2010 - Telecom Argentina S.A. (“Telecom Argentina” or the “Company”) (BASE: TECO2, NYSE: TEO), one of Argentina's leading telecommunications groups, announced that the Annual General Ordinary and Extraordinary Shareholder’s Meeting held on April 28, 2010 approved a cash dividend distribution in the amount of P$ 1,053,287,646.

The payment of the dividend will be made in two installments on the following dates and amounts: May 5, 2010, for the amount of P$ 689,066,685 and December 20, 2010, for the balance of P$ 364,220,961.

The amount to be distributed in the first installment is equivalent to P$ 0.70 per share or P$3.50 per ADR, prior to deductions for personal asset tax obligations, described below.

For ADR holders, the Record Date is May 4, 2010 and the Payment Date is May 12, 2010. Payment will be made through the Depositary Bank, JP Morgan Chase & Co.

For non-ADR holders, the Record Date is also May 4, 2010 and the Payment Date is May 5, 2010. For these shareholders the payment will be made through the Caja de Valores of the Republic of Argentina.

The Company will deduct from the first installment of the dividend, the amount paid by the Company for the personal asset tax (pursuant to unnumbered section following section 25 of Law No. 23.966 and its amendments) for the fiscal year 2009. Deductions for personal asset tax payments will not apply to shareholders who did not own shares or ADRs on December 31, 2009, or who have reimbursed the Company for such tax obligations.

Due to the time required to determine which non-ADR holders are subject to such tax, the effective date of the distribution of the dividends through Caja de Valores S.A. will be made within 10 days after the payment date.

Telecom Argentina is the parent company of a leading telecommunications group in Argentina, where it offers directly or through its controlled subsidiaries local and long distance fixed-line telephony, cellular, data transmission and Internet services, among other services. Additionally, through a controlled subsidiary, the Telecom Group offers cellular services in Paraguay. The Company commenced operations on November 8, 1990, upon the Argentine Government's transfer of the telecommunications system in the northern region of Argentina.

Nortel Inversora S.A. ("Nortel"), which acquired the majority of the Company from the Argentine government, holds 54.74% of Telecom Argentina's common stock. Nortel is a holding company where the common stock (approximately 68% of capital stock) is owned by Sofora Telecomunicaciones S.A. Additionally, Nortel capital stock is comprised of preferred shares that are held by minority shareholders.

As of April 29, 2010, Telecom Argentina had 984,380,978 shares outstanding.

This document may contain statements that could constitute forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, the Company's expectations for its future performance, revenues, income, earnings per share, capital expenditures, dividends, liquidity and capital structure; the effects of its debt restructuring process; the impact of emergency laws enacted by the Argentine Government; and the impact of rate changes and competition on the Company's future financial performance. Forward-looking statements may be identified by words such as "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "projects," "intends," "should," "seeks," "estimates," "future" or other similar expressions. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could significantly affect the Company's expected results. The risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the impact of emergency laws enacted by the Argentine government that have resulted in the repeal of Argentina's Convertibility law, devaluation of the peso, various changes in restrictions on the ability to exchange pesos into foreign currencies, and currency transfer policy generally, the "pesification" of tariffs charged for public services, the elimination of indexes to adjust rates charged for public services and the Executive branch announcement to renegotiate the terms of the concessions granted to public service providers, including Telecom. Due to extensive changes in laws and economic and business conditions in Argentina, it is difficult to predict the impact of these changes on the Company's financial condition. Other factors may include, but are not limited to, the evolution of the economy in Argentina, growing inflationary pressure and evolution in consumer spending and the outcome of certain legal proceedings. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this document. The Company undertakes no obligation to release publicly the results of any revisions to forward-looking statements which may be made to reflect events and circumstances after the date of this press release, including, without limitation, changes in the Company's business or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. Readers are encouraged to consult the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F, as well as periodic filings made on Form 6-K, which are filed with or furnished to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission for further information concerning risks and uncertainties faced by Telecom.
