Item 8.01. Other Events

The Company has previously disclosed that its subsidiary, NJRES and eCORP Marketing, LLC (eCORP Marketing), the counter party to the Amended and Restated Natural Gas Storage Marketing and Management Agreement (Marketing Agreement) concerning the Stagecoach Natural Gas Storage Project (the Stagecoach Project) have been engaged in litigation regarding a dispute over the Marketing Agreement. As of March 16, 2005, eCORP Marketing, AIG Highstar, and NJRES entered into a Confidential Release and Settlement Agreement ("Settlement Agreement") that settles all claims by and between the parties. Pursuant to its terms, the Settlement Agreement is contingent upon the sale of the Stagecoach Project to a third-party, presently anticipated to occur on or before April 30, 2005, as that date may be extended by the parties. Although the Settlement Agreement terminates the Marketing Agreement and all rights and obligations thereunder, NJRES is currently in discussions with the proposed purchaser of the Stagecoach Project to provide some of the services provided under the Marketing Agreement, including inventory management and optimization services. On March 21, 2005, eCORP withdrew, without prejudice, both its motion to dismiss or stay the NJRES Complaint and its motion to remand the third-party complaint. The parties will file stipulations dismissing this matter with prejudice upon closing of the sale of the Stagecoach Project to a third-party. Should the Project not be sold as anticipated, the parties will return to their pre-Settlement Agreement positions.
