Approximate total number of shares of BANCOLOMBIA
(Not accounting for cash payments for fractional shares)

* In accordance with the Meger Agreement approved by the General Shareholders' Meetings of the merged entities, shareholders of Conavi and Corfinsura are able to choose the class of shares of Bancolombia (common or non voting preferred shares) to be received in the exchange for their Conavi or Corfinsura shares within the three months following the completion of the merger.

The three-month term established for the share exchange started on August 1, 2005 and ends on October 31, 2005. Once this term has expired, shareholders of Conavi and Corfinsura who did not exercise their right to choose the class or shares of Bancolombia to be received in the exchange will receive common shares.

Additionally, the number of shares of Bancolombia used as a base for the preparation of this information does not take into account cash payments for the fractional shares of Bancolombia that result from the exchange.

For the foregoing reasons, the information hereby disclosed represents an estimate. The capital structure of BANCOLOMBIA post-merger, the number of outstanding shares and the total number of ordinary and preferred shares can only be known once the share exchange term has expired.

 This information is based on Bancolombia's capital structure at July 11, 2005 and Conavi's and Corfinsura's capital structure at July 29, 2005.

 In accordance with the requirement of the Superintendency of Securities, this information corresponds to the 20 largest shareholders of Bancolombia, considered individually, and does not take into account the beneficial owners of these shares.
