CVRD concludes the stock merger with Caemi

Rio de Janeiro, May 3, 2006 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) announces that it has concluded today the withdrawal right period to the holders of common shares issued by CVRD regarding the proposal for CVRD stock merger with Caemi Mineração e Metalurgia S.A (CAEMI).

Therefore, starting on May 4, 2006, inclusive, preferred shares class A issued by CVRD resulting from the company's increase of capital will not be negotiated as Caemi preferred shares (CMET4) in the Bolsa de Valores de São Paulo (Bovespa).

We also inform that Caemi preferred shares will be replaced on May 11, 2006 by preferred shares class A issued by CVRD (VALE5).

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct.

These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
