Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax
Considerations for Non-U.S. Holders:

Payments of interest on a Note to any Non-U.S. Holder (generally, a beneficial owner of a Note that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is a nonresident alien individual; a foreign corporation; or a foreign estate or trust) will be exempt from

U.S. federal income tax (including withholding tax) provided, generally, that the Non-U.S. Holder certifies on Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form W-8BEN, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a United States person and provides the Non-U.S. Holder's name and address or otherwise satisfies applicable documentation requirements, and that these amounts are not effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business. If a Non-U.S. Holder does not provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN, payments of interest on a Note will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30%, or such other lower rate as provided in an applicable tax treaty.

If a Non-U.S. Holder of a Note is engaged in a trade or business in the United States, and if interest on a Note is effectively connected with the conduct of that trade or business, the Non-U.S. Holder, although exempt from the withholding tax discussed in the preceding paragraph, will generally be subject to U.S. federal income tax the same manner as a United States person, subject to an applicable income tax treaty providing otherwise, except that the Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide to the Issuer a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI in order to claim an exemption from withholding tax. Interest on a Note may also be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or a lower rate as provided in an applicable tax treaty).

A Non-U.S. Holder should consult his or her own tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the ownership, and the sale, exchange or other disposition, of a Note.

Note: A securities rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time
