Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 8, 2009, NCI Building Systems, Inc. (the Company) entered into a lock-up and voting agreement (the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement) with certain lenders under the Company's existing term loan credit agreement (collectively, the Consenting Term Lenders). Concurrently with the execution of the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement, the Company entered into (1) a third amendment (Amendment No. 3) to the Investment Agreement, dated as of August 14, 2009 (the Original Investment Agreement), by and between the Company and Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund VIII, L.P. (the CD&R Fund) as previously amended by that amendment (Amendment No. 1), dated as of August 28, 2009, by and between the Company and the CD&R Fund and by that second amendment (Amendment No. 2), dated as of August 31, 2009, by and between the Company and the CD&R Fund (the Original Investment Agreement, as amended by Amendment No. 1, Amendment No. 2 and Amendment No. 3, the Investment Agreement) and (2) an amendment to the Lock-Up and Voting Agreement (the Existing Lock-Up Agreement), dated as of August 31, 2009, with holders of more than 79% of the Company's outstanding convertible notes, in each case, in order to accommodate the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement and the amendment contemplated thereby of certain terms of the refinancing of the Company's existing credit agreement contemplated by the Investment Agreement and the form of the amended credit agreement attached as an exhibit to the Investment Agreement to effect such term loan refinancing (as amended by Amendment No. 3, the form of the Amended Credit Agreement). Including the Consenting Term Lenders, the Company has commitments or confirmation of intent from lenders holding more than two thirds of the outstanding principal amount of the term loans.

Amendment to Investment Agreement

In the Investment Agreement, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, the Company agreed to issue and sell to the CD&R Fund, and the CD&R Fund agreed to purchase from the Company, for an aggregate purchase price of $250 million, 250,000 shares of a newly created class of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, of the Company to be designated the Series B Cumulative Convertible Participating Preferred Stock (the Preferred Stock, and shares thereof, the Preferred Shares). The purchase and sale of the Preferred Shares pursuant to the terms of the Investment Agreement is referred to herein as the Equity Investment. The closing of the Equity Investment is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of closing conditions set forth in the Investment Agreement, including, among others:

the consummation of an exchange offer (the Exchange Offer) by the Company to acquire all of the Company's existing 2.125% Convertible Senior Subordinated Notes due 2024 (the convertible notes) in exchange for a combination of cash and shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Common Stock), which exchange offer is subject to a number of conditions, including the tender of at least 95% of the aggregate principal amount of such convertible notes;

the refinancing of the Company's existing credit agreement, including the partial prepayment of approximately $143 million in principal amount of the existing $293 million in principal amount of outstanding term loans thereunder and a modification of the terms and an amendment and extension of the maturity (the restatement) of the remaining $150 million outstanding balance of the term loans; and entry into a new $125 million asset-based revolving credit facility.

Amendment No. 3, among other things, amends the terms of the refinancing of the Company's existing credit agreement contemplated by the Investment Agreement, such that

(1) the applicable margin for term loans under the new credit agreement (in the form of the form of Amended Credit Agreement) would be increased by 100 basis points; (2) upon consummation of the restatement of the new credit agreement the Company would be required to use reasonable best efforts to obtain the full amount of any 2009 tax refunds that are legally due to the Company; (3) on or before the date that is 45 business days after the date on which 2009 tax refunds are received, the Company will be required to prepay a portion of the term loans under the new credit agreement equal to (a) the greater of (x) $10 million and (y) 50% of 2009 tax refunds actually received by the Company or its subsidiaries, minus (b) the aggregate principal amount of term loans previously prepaid or repurchased pursuant to the terms of the new credit agreement and (4) a definition of "ABL Default Event" has been added to the form of Amended Credit Agreement that will provide that an ABL Default Event will have occurred if any of certain specified major events of default has occurred and is continuing, and the administrative agent or collateral agent under the ABL facility agreement has exercised any remedy provided for thereunder and has not rescinded such action.

Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement

On October 8, 2009, the Company entered the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement with the Consenting Term Lenders. Pursuant to, and subject to the terms set forth in the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement, each Consenting Term Lender has irrevocably agreed, among other things:

to accept its share of the prepayment of approximately $143 million of the term loans outstanding under the existing credit agreement applicable to the obligations under the existing credit agreement held by it, and, with respect to the remaining obligations under the existing credit agreement held by it, to execute an amendment and restatement of the existing credit agreement substantially in the form of the form of Amended Credit Agreement; to the extent such Consenting Term Lenders hold or beneficially own, or serve as manager or investment advisor having the unrestricted power to vote or dispose of, any of the Company's outstanding convertible notes, to tender all such convertible notes in the Exchange Offer on the terms set forth in the Investment Agreement and to vote all obligations under the Company's existing credit agreement and/or all convertible notes held by it in favor of the prepackaged plan contemplated by the Investment Agreement.

Each Consenting Term Lender also agreed, from and after the date of the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement, not to directly or indirectly transfer any convertible note or term loan under the Company's existing credit agreement or interest therein other than a transfer that (1) does not require registration under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and (2) that is in accordance with the terms of the Company's existing credit agreement and the indenture under which the convertible notes were issued, as applicable, to (a) a transferee that is a Consenting Term Lender or any of its affiliates or (b) a transferee that is a "Qualified Institutional Buyer" within the meaning of Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act. Unless a transfer is being made to a Consenting Term Lender, such transfer must be pursuant to a privately negotiated transaction and the transferee must execute and deliver to the Company a joinder agreement pursuant to which the transferee agrees to be bound by the terms of the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement.

Under the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement, and subject to the terms and conditions therein, among other things, the Company agreed that each term lender that, prior to the filing of the bankruptcy proceeding contemplated by the prepackaged plan, if applicable, executes an amendment and restatement of the existing credit agreement substantially in the form of the form of amended credit agreement contemplated by the Investment Agreement to give effect to the term loan refinancing will receive a consent fee equal to 2.0% of the aggregate principal amount of term loans held by such lender prior to giving effect to such refinancing and has also agreed that (1) holders of convertible notes representing at least a majority of the outstanding convertible notes may submit proposed persons to serve as the initial "Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors" (as defined in the Form of Stockholders Agreement attached as Exhibit C to the Investment Agreement) as of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement, and the Company will consider in good faith any such proposed persons; (2) prior to the appointment of the initial

Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors and prior to the closing of the Equity Investment, the Company will provide notice of the Company's proposed initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors; and

(3) in the event that holders representing at least a majority of the outstanding convertible notes provide written notice to the Company that they object to the proposed initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors, the Company will propose alternative candidates to serve as the initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors so that at least one of the two initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors is acceptable to holders of convertible notes representing at least a majority of the outstanding convertible notes.

In addition, except to the extent that the Common Stock received by the Consenting Term Lenders in the Exchange Offer has been previously registered under an effective registration statement and is freely tradable, the Company has agreed to enter into a registration rights agreement containing customary indemnification provisions for selling shareholders that will provide registration rights to the Consenting Term Lenders in the event that the transactions contemplated by the Equity Investment are consummated or, in the alternative, if the prepackaged plan is confirmed and the Common Stock received by the Consenting Term Lenders is not freely tradable pursuant to the provisions of Section 1145 of title 11 of the United States Code. Under such registration rights agreement, and subject to customary blackout periods in connection with earnings releases and material corporate developments, the Company will (1) no later than five business days following the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the prepackaged plan, file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) a shelf registration statement covering resales of the Common Stock received by the Consenting Term Lenders on a delayed or continuous basis and (2) use its best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration until the earlier of (a) six months after the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the prepackaged plan and (b) the date on which all such Common Stock held by the Consenting Term Lenders can be resold pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without limitation as to volume or compliance with any manner of sale requirements. If, however, during the six months after the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the prepackaged plan, there is not adequate current public information with respect to the Company for purposes of resales of Common Stock under Rule 144(c) under the Securities Act, then the Company will use its best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of the registration until the earlier of (a) twelve months after the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the prepackaged plan and (b) the date on which all such Common Stock held by the Consenting Term Lenders can be resold pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without limitation as to volume or compliance with any manner of sale requirements.

The Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement may be terminated by holders of 66-2/3% of the convertible notes and term loans held by all Consenting Term Lenders under certain circumstances, including, among other things, if (1) an event occurs that would provide either the Company or the CD&R Fund with the right to terminate the Investment Agreement under the terms of the Investment Agreement, (2) the Investment Agreement is terminated; (3) there is a material breach of the Company's obligations under the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement; (4) the economic terms of the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement are altered or amended in a manner adverse to the consenting lenders; (5) the consideration (or mix of consideration) being offered in the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement is altered or amended; (6) the other terms of the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement are altered or amended in a manner materially adverse to the Consenting Term Lenders; or (7) the minimum tender condition of the proposed Exchange Offer is altered or amended, or an amendment to the Company's existing credit agreement as contemplated by the Investment Agreement is executed and in effect and, at such time, such amendment is not binding on all lenders under the Company's existing credit agreement.

Amendment to the Existing Lock-Up Agreement

On October 8, 2009, concurrently with the execution of Amendment No. 3 and the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement, the Company entered into an amendment to the Existing Lock-Up Agreement. The amendment, among other things, modifies the definition of Transactions (as defined in the Existing Lock-Up Agreement) to accommodate the Term Lender Lock-Up Agreement and the amendment contemplated thereby of certain terms of the form of Amended Credit Agreement.
