CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Company's Board of Directors met twelve times during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2009, eight of which were special meetings. Each of our directors attended at least 75% of all the meetings of the Board and those committees on which he or she served during fiscal year 2009 either in person or telephonically. The Board of Directors encourages all members to attend stockholder meetings, but has not adopted a formal policy regarding attendance. All of the Company's directors attended last year's annual stockholders meeting.

The Board of Directors has determined that each of the directors other than Messrs. Hable, Gampp and Malis satisfies the definition of an independent director set forth in the listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. (Nasdaq) and the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, available on the Company's website at www.synergeticsusa.com. In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee satisfies the additional conditions for independence for Audit Committee members required by Nasdaq.

The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines also state that the independent directors should meet each time that a regularly scheduled Board meeting is held, in addition to holding other meetings as needed. During fiscal 2009, the independent directors held four meetings in conjunction with regularly scheduled Board meetings and four special meetings.

The Board of Directors maintains the following three standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each of these committees operates pursuant to a written charter setting forth the functions and responsibilities of the committee, which may be reviewed on our website at www.synergeticsusa.com and are also available to stockholders in print upon request.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is responsible for the appointment, evaluation, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent registered public accounting firm and, where appropriate, the dismissal of the independent registered public accounting firm. Furthermore, the Audit Committee is responsible for meeting with the independent registered public accounting firm and other corporate officers to review matters relating to financial reporting and accounting procedures and policies. Among other responsibilities, the Audit Committee also reviews financial information provided to stockholders and others, assesses the adequacy of financial, accounting, operating and disclosure controls, evaluates the scope of the audits of the independent registered public accounting firm and internal auditors, and reports on the results of such audits to the Board of Directors. The current members of the Audit Committee are Ms. Hinshaw (Chairperson), Mr. Dick, and Mr. Cardinale, all of whom meet all applicable standards for Audit Committee membership under the Nasdaq listing standards and Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) rules. The Audit Committee held four meetings during the last fiscal year.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is composed entirely of independent directors, as defined by the Nasdaq listing standards and SEC rules, and is responsible for administering the Company's compensation programs and recommending to the Board of Directors other compensation and benefits of the Chief Executive Officer and all named executive officers. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Mr. Dick (Chairperson), Mr. Cardinale and Mr. Guarch, all of whom meet the independence requirements of the Nasdaq listing standards and SEC rules. The Compensation Committee held four meetings during the last fiscal year.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee meets at the end of each fiscal year to determine and recommend to the Board for approval the compensation packages for executive officers in light of the Company's compensation philosophy and objectives. The Compensation Committee considers recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer as to compensation for each executive officer based upon their performance against Company and personal objectives, other than himself. The Compensation Committee has full responsibility to recommend to the independent directors of the Board the compensation package of the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee may not delegate its authority regarding executive compensation.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The members of the Company's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are Mr. Cardinale (Chairperson), Mr. Dick and Mr. Guarch, all of whom meet the independence requirements of the Nasdaq listing standards and SEC rules. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board of Directors, recommending to the Board of Directors the director nominees to be proposed for election by the stockholders and recommending to the Board of Directors corporate governance guidelines and procedures applicable to the Company. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee held four meetings during the last fiscal year.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider director nominees recommended by stockholders of the Company. Each stockholder must comply with applicable requirements of the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws and the Exchange Act with respect to the nomination of, or proposal of, nominees for election as directors of the Company. Stockholders should submit any such nominations, together with appropriate biographical information and a description of the nominee's qualifications to serve as director, to the Chairperson of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, c/o Pamela G. Boone, Secretary, Synergetics USA, Inc., 3845 Corporate Centre Drive, O'Fallon, Missouri 63368. The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines do not require that qualified director candidates should be limited by specific selection criteria. Candidates are selected for, among other things, their independence, integrity, diverse experience, leadership ability, ability to exercise sound judgment, scientific expertise, experience at policy-making levels involving issues affecting business, government, education and technology, and experience relevant to the Company's global medical device microsurgery business. Final approval of a candidate is determined by the full Board of Directors. Nominees to be evaluated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for future vacancies on the Board of Directors will be selected by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee from candidates recommended by multiple sources, including members of the Board of Directors, senior management, independent search firms, stockholders and other sources, all of whom will be evaluated based on the same criteria.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

The Company has established a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which is applicable to all of its employees, officers and directors. The Code is available on the Company's website at www.synergeticsusa.com and also available to stockholders in print upon request. We intend to post any future amendments and revisions to the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics on our website.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Stockholders may communicate directly with the Board of Directors, as a group, or any individual director by submitting written correspondence addressed to the Board or an individual director at Synergetics USA, Inc., 3845 Corporate Centre Drive, O'Fallon, Missouri 63368. All communications are relayed onto the appropriate Board member or members.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Directors who are neither employees of the Company nor an immediate family member of an officer of the Company are paid $750 for each meeting of the Board of Directors and each meeting of a committee of the Board of Directors that they attend. The Chairperson of the Audit Committee receives $2,250 for each meeting of the Audit Committee. All directors are entitled to reimbursement for travel and lodging expenses incurred in connection with their attendance at meetings. In addition, the independent directors receive compensation at the standard Board meeting rate of $750 per day for each day spent at the Company and each day spent away from personal business on

Company business. In addition, the independent directors receive $500 per meeting for each telephonic meeting of the independent directors or on Company business. This additional compensation arrangement has been approved by the management directors. Directors who are also employees of the Company do not receive compensation for their services as members of the Board of Directors.

Compensation for members of the Board has been established and will be reviewed annually by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee may not delegate its authority regarding director compensation, and no executive officer plays a role in determining the amount of director compensation. The Compensation Committee considers the amount of time directors dedicate to Company matters and the need to attract and retain qualified directors when determining Board compensation. For example, the Compensation Committee has approved additional compensation for the Audit Committee Chairperson in recognition of the time commitment required by such position.

To align the interests of directors with those of the Company's stockholders, each independent director also receives an option to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock each year in which he or she is elected, appointed, or re-elected to serve as a director pursuant to the Amended and Restated 2005 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan.

As previously disclosed, Gregg Scheller resigned as Chief Executive Officer of the Company effective July 31, 2008. Until David Hable was hired as the Company's new Chief Executive Officer on January 28, 2009, each of our independent directors served as principal executive officer of the Company on a weekly rotating basis. As such, all compensation received by the independent directors in all capacities during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2009 is included in the Summary Compensation Table.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS AND SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

Mr. Hable and the Company entered into a change in control agreement, effective as of January 29, 2009. The change in control agreement has a rolling one-year term and expires 30 days after Mr. Hable's employment is terminated. Payments to which Mr. Hable is due under the change in control agreement are not subject to reduction in the event he receives other compensation for services rendered after termination of his employment, and he is under no duty to mitigate any payments.

The change in control agreement provides that if Mr. Hable's employment is terminated within one year following a change in control for cause or disability (as both are defined in the change in control agreement), as a result of his death or by Mr. Hable other than as Involuntary Termination (as defined in the change in control agreement), the Company shall pay to Mr. Hable all compensation earned or accrued through his employment termination date, including (i) base salary; (ii) reimbursement for reasonable and necessary expenses; (iii) vacation pay; (iv) bonuses and incentive compensation; and (v) all other amounts to which he is entitled under any compensation or benefit plan of the Company (standard compensation due).

If Mr. Hable's employment is terminated within one year following a change in control without cause and for any reason other than death or disability, including involuntary termination, and provided he enters into a separation agreement within 30 days of his employment termination, he shall receive the following in a lump sum (early severance): (i) all standard compensation due; (ii) an amount equal to one-half times his annual base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the change in control; and (iii) as compensation for certain lost benefits, an amount equal to 10% of his base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the change in control. If such termination occurs during the period that is 6 to 12 months after Mr. Hable's start date (as defined in the change in control agreement), he shall receive in a lump sum the early severance and an additional amount equal to the sum of one-twelfth times his base salary for each month of employment completed between 7 and 12 months after his start date. If Mr. Hable is terminated at any time after the first anniversary of his start date, he shall receive the following (ordinary severance): (i) all standard compensation due; (ii) an amount equal to one times his annual base salary at the rate in effect immediately prior to the change in control; and (iii) any amount payable as of the termination date under the Company's objectives-based incentive plan. Such ordinary severance shall be paid in 12 equal monthly installments beginning in the month following Mr. Hable's employment termination. Furthermore, all of Mr. Hable's awards of shares or options shall immediately vest and be exercisable for one year after the date of his involuntary employment termination.

As defined in the change in control agreement, a change in control means: (i) the acquisition by any person (as defined in the change in control agreement) of securities of the Company representing 51% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's outstanding voting securities; (ii) a change in the composition of the Board of Directors of the Company such that during any period of up to two consecutive years, individuals who constitute members of the Board of Directors at the beginning of the period cease to constitute the majority thereof; and (iii) the closing of certain mergers or consolidations of the Company with any other corporation.

On August 1, 2007, Ms. Boone entered into three-year employment agreement with the Company. Pursuant to her agreement, Ms. Boone's base salary is $232,000. In addition, Ms. Boone receives such other benefits that the Company provides to its executive officers, including healthcare, life insurance, disability and 30 days of paid vacation. Ms. Boone is eligible to receive an annual bonus, as may be determined in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

If Ms. Boone is terminated without cause or within twelve months following a change of control, or if she resigns for good reason, she shall be entitled to her base salary and health care benefits for a 15-month period following termination. As used in the employment agreement, "cause" means (1) the executive officer's conviction of any felony, or conviction for embezzlement or misappropriation of Company money or other property; (2) any act of gross negligence in performing the executive officer's duties; (3) the executive officer's willful refusal to execute her duties (other than for disability); or (4) the executive officer's breach of the non-competition terms contained in her employment agreement. Termination for the events described in clauses (2) and (3) above will not constitute termination for "cause" unless the executive officer is provided written notice reasonably detailing such occurrence and is given five business days after receipt of such notice to cure such event and an opportunity to be heard before the Company's Board of Directors.

As used in the employment agreement with Ms. Boone, the term "good reason" means (1) failure to pay, or a reduction, by the Company of the executive officer's base salary; (2) the failure or refusal by the Company to provide the executive officer with the benefits set forth in her employment agreement; (3) the assignment to the executive officer of any duties materially inconsistent with the duties set forth in the employment agreement, which assignment is not cured within five business days of written notice to the Company; (4) a requirement imposed by the Company on Ms. Boone that results in her being based at a location that is outside a 35-mile radius from the Company's current corporate offices in O'Fallon, Missouri; (5) a change in the executive officer's title; (6) any material breach by the Company of the employment agreement, which breach is not cured within five business days after receipt of written notice from the executive officer; or (7) the termination of the executive officer's employment other than for cause, death or disability.

Change of control is defined in Ms. Boone's employment agreement to mean a change in the ownership or effective control of the Company, or a change in the ownership of a substantial portion of the Company.

The employment agreement for Ms. Boone contains non-competition covenants, depending on the circumstances of any termination of employment, and non-solicitation provisions. No payments upon termination or resignation as described above shall be received upon her breach of the non-competition and non-solicitation provisions of her employment agreement. Furthermore, Ms. Boone is subject to an agreement that any products, inventions, discoveries and improvements made by her during the employment term shall be the property of the Company.

FORM 10-K

Along with mailing the proxy materials, we have included a copy of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2009. We will provide stockholders with additional copies of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2009, without charge, upon written request to Pamela G. Boone, Secretary, Synergetics USA, Inc., 3845 Corporate Centre Drive, O Fallon, Missouri 63368.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g. brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement and annual report addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

A number of brokers with accountholders who are stockholders will be householding our proxy materials. As indicated in the notice previously provided by these brokers to stockholders, a single proxy statement and annual report will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from an affected stockholder. Once you have received notice from your broker or us that they will be householding communications to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise.

Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy materials at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker or, if a stockholder is a direct holder of shares of our Common Stock, they should submit a written request to our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 6201 15th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11219.

To delist yourself from householding in the future you may write the Company at 3845 Corporate Centre Drive, O Fallon, Missouri 63368, Attention: Pamela G. Boone or call (636) 939-5100. Upon written or oral request directed to the Company at the address or phone number listed above, we will deliver promptly a separate copy of the proxy materials.

Boone, Secretary, Synergetics USA, Inc. no later than July 27, 2010. The proposals must comply with the rules of the SEC relating to stockholder proposals. The Company's Bylaws provide that no business may be brought before an annual meeting unless specified in the notice of meeting, brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or otherwise brought by a stockholder who has delivered notice to the Company (containing certain information specified in the Bylaws) not less than 60 or more than 90 days before the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders.
