Employee Communications

This week Intel published its 2010 Annual Report and 2011 Proxy Statement in preparation for the company's Annual Stockholders Meeting. This year's meeting will be held May 19 at 8:30 a.m. (Pacific) at Intel Corporation, Building SC-12, Santa Clara, Calif.

Attendance via webcast encouraged

You will be able to attend the meeting via webcast at www.intc.com. Limited seating will be available in SC-12 to accommodate non-employee stockholders who don't have access to the webcast.

Summary of proxy proposals

All Intel stockholders, including Intel employees who own shares of stock, have the right to vote on proposals outlined in the proxy prior to the stockholders meeting. The proxy asks stockholders to vote on the following proposals:

1. Elect the 10 nominees to the Board of Directors.
2. Ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the current year.
3. Amendment and extension of the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan.
4. Amendment and extension of the 2006 Stock Purchase Plan.
5. Advisory vote on executive compensation.
6. Advisory vote on the frequency of holding future advisory votes on executive compensation.

The company is recommending a vote FOR all the nominees listed and FOR proposals two through five. The company is not making a recommendation on proposal six. Stockholders will be able to specify one of four choices for this proposal on the proxy card: one year, two years, three years, or abstain. Your shares will not be voted on this matter unless you specifically indicate your preference among the choices. Please refer to the proxy materials for more detailed explanation of these proposals.

How you will learn about the voting process

Starting on April 5, each stockholder will receive voting information along with the 2011 Proxy Statement from Broadridge, Intel's proxy mailing agent. The proxy statement and voting information will be delivered either via email or by U.S. mail, according to your instructions. The information will explain the steps required to submit votes and the voting deadlines. Stockholders may receive multiple sets of voting information if they hold Intel stock in multiple accounts, so votes should be submitted for each set of voting information they receive.

PURPOSE OF THE ANNUAL STOCKHOLDERS MEETING AND PROXY STATEMENT

Companies hold formal annual meetings of stockholders to elect directors and to vote on other items on the agenda. A proxy statement describes the proposals presented to the stockholders for their vote, and includes information on how to vote.

Intel has approximately three million stockholders. Only a few hundred actually attend the meeting in person. Most stockholders vote on the proposals beforehand through the proxy statement. For each share of stock owned, stockholders get:

One vote for each of the directors being elected. There are ten directors nominated in 2011, so you get ten votes, one for each director nominee; and

One vote on each of the other proposals on the agenda.
