PART 1

Item 1. BUSINESS

Handleman Company, a Michigan corporation (herein referred to as the "Company" or "Handleman" or "Registrant"), which has its executive offices in Troy, Michigan, is the successor to a proprietorship formed in 1934, and to a partnership formed in 1937.

DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS:

Handleman Company is comprised of two operating segments: Handleman Entertainment Resources ("H.E.R.") and North Coast Entertainment ("NCE").

H.E.R. is a category manager and distributor of prerecorded music to mass merchants in the United States, United Kingdom ("UK"), Canada, Mexico, Brazil and Argentina. As a category manager, H.E.R. manages a broad assortment of titles required to optimize sales in retail stores and provides direct-to-store shipments, marketing of the selections, in-store merchandising and product exchange.

NCE has two companies in its portfolio. Anchor Bay Entertainment, an independent home video label, markets a collection of titles that range from horror to exercise to children's classics. Madacy Entertainment, an independent record label, markets music and video products with a catalog spanning all genres.

The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those described in Note 1 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, "Accounting Policies." Segment data includes intersegment revenues, as well as a charge allocating all corporate costs to the operating segments. The Company evaluates performance of its segments and allocates resources to them based on income before interest, income taxes and minority interest. See Note 2 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding segment activities.

The following table sets forth revenues, and the percentage contribution to consolidated revenues, for the Company's two business segments for the fiscal years ended April 27, 2002 ("Fiscal 2002"), April 28, 2001 ("Fiscal 2001") and April 29, 2000 ("Fiscal 2000"):

Handleman Entertainment Resources

As category manager and distributor of pre-recorded music, H.E.R. manages the selection, acquisition, delivery, display and return of music product for the Company's retail customers' ("retailers") stores. The following discussion pertains to these activities of H.E.R. which comprises approximately 91% of the Company's revenues.

The Company's vendors and customers use the services of H.E.R. for a variety of reasons:

- .. Music is a local, as well as a national and international, business requiring that products selected for each individual store meet the demand of consumers who frequent each store.
- .. Store service - the Company's field sales force visits retailers' stores to implement a variety of merchandising responsibilities, including verifying that product has been placed on display, ensuring that the department is properly merchandised and that top-hit product is available, setting up point of purchase displays, reordering product with low inventory levels or required for local events, and ensuring that new product is displayed on the new release date.
- .. Direct store shipment - the Company bypasses the retailers' distribution centers and ships "shelf ready" product (i.e., product which includes sticker pricing, theft deterrent devices and special displayers), directly to thousands of retail store locations.
- .. Numerous small quantity shipments - to tailor each store inventory to changing consumer demand in each store, the Company must make frequent shipments of less than case lot quantities to each store.

The Company distributes throughout vast geographic regions and adapts selections to local tastes via a coordination of national and local purchasing responsibility, both monitored by inventory control programs. In fiscal 2002, approximately 88% of H.E.R. revenues were in North America and approximately 12% of H.E.R. revenues were in the UK.

Vendors

Edgar Filing: HANDLEMAN CO /MI/ - Form 10-K

The Company purchases from many different vendors. The volume of purchases from individual vendors fluctuates from year to year based upon the salability of selections being offered by such vendors. Though a small number of major, financially sound vendors account for a high percentage of purchases, product must be selected from a variety of additional vendors in order to maintain an adequate selection for consumers. The Company must closely monitor its inventory exposure and accounts payable balances with smaller vendors which may not have the financial resources to honor their return commitments.

Since the public's taste for the products the Company supplies is broad and varied, H.E.R. is required to maintain sufficient inventories to satisfy diverse tastes. The Company minimizes the effect of obsolescence through planned purchasing methods and computerized inventory controls. Since substantially all vendors from which the Company purchases product offer some level of return allowances and price protection, the Company's exposure to markdown risk is limited unless vendors are unable to fulfill their return obligations or non-salable product purchases exceed vendor return limitations. Vendors offer a variety of return programs, ranging from 100% returns to zero return allowance. Other vendors offer incentive and penalty arrangements to restrict returns. Accordingly, the Company may possess in its inventories non-salable product that can only be returned to vendors with cost penalties or may be non-returnable until the Company can comply with the provisions of the vendors' return policies.

H.E.R. generally does not have distribution contracts with its vendors; consequently, its relationships with them may be discontinued at any time by such vendors, or by H.E.R.

Customers

The customers of H.E.R. utilize its services for a variety of reasons. Products must be selected from a multitude of vendors offering numerous titles, different formats (e.g., compact discs, cassettes) and different payment and return arrangements. In addition, retailers utilize category managers due to the complexity of managing the numerous SKUs required per department, the variability of salable items among individual stores of a retailer, the wide array of programs offered by the multitude of vendors, the "hits" nature of the business and the high risk of inventory obsolescence. By utilizing H.E.R., customers avoid substantially all of the risks inherent in product selection and the risk of inventory obsolescence.

The Company must anticipate consumer demand for individual titles. In order to maximize sales, the Company must be able to immediately react to "breakout" titles, while simultaneously minimizing inventory exposure for artists or titles which do not sell.

H.E.R. also offers customers a variety of "value-added" services:

Store Service: Sales representatives visit individual retail stores and meet with store management to discuss upcoming promotions, special merchandising efforts, department changes, current programs, or breaking releases which will increase revenues. They also monitor inventory levels, check merchandise displays and install point-of-purchase advertising materials.

Advertising: H.E.R. supplies point-of-purchase materials and assists customers in preparing radio, television and print advertisements.

Fixturing: H.E.R. provides specially designed fixtures that emphasize product visibility and accessibility.

Freight: H.E.R. coordinates delivery of product to each store.

Product Exchange: H.E.R. protects its continuing customers against product markdowns by offering the privilege of exchanging slower-selling product for newer product.

The nature of the Company's business lends itself to computerized ordering, distribution and store inventory management techniques. The Company is able to tailor the inventories of individual stores to reflect the customer profile of each store and to adjust inventory levels, product mix and selections according to seasonal and current selling trends.

Using proprietary processes and systems to forecast consumer demand, Handleman determines the selections to be offered in its customers' retail stores, and ships these selections to the stores from one of its distribution centers. Slow-selling items are removed from the stores by the Company and are recycled for redistribution to other stores, or for return to the vendors. Returns from customer stores occur for a variety of reasons, including new releases which did not achieve their expected sales potential, advertised product to be returned after the promotion has ended, regularly scheduled realignment pick-ups and customer directed returns. The Company (for financial reporting purposes) reduces gross sales and direct product costs for estimated future returns at the time the merchandise is shipped to customer stores.

During the fiscal year ended April 27, 2002, one customer, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., accounted for approximately 49% of the Company's consolidated revenues, while a second customer, Kmart Corporation, accounted for approximately 30%. Handleman generally does not have contracts with its customers, and such relationships may be changed or discontinued at any time by the customers or Handleman; the discontinuance of, or a significant unfavorable change in, the relationships with either of the two largest customers would have a materially adverse effect upon the Company's future sales and earnings.

During the Company's third quarter of fiscal 2002, Kmart Corporation filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection. As part of this proceeding, the Company was designated a "critical vendor." This designation allowed the Company to collect its pre-petition H.E.R. accounts receivable balance. On February 1, 2002, the Company received a $49.0 million payment from Kmart, representing substantially all amounts currently due at that time. The Company immediately resumed shipping product to this customer and believes Kmart's subsequent closing of 283 lower performing customer stores will negatively impact sales by approximately $35.0 million annually. However, because these stores were under performing, the effect on the Company's operating income (income before interest, income taxes and minority interest) will not be material.

Operations

H.E.R. distributes products from facilities in North America and the United Kingdom. Besides economies of scale and through-put considerations in determining the number of facilities it operates, the Company must also consider freight costs to and from customers' stores and the importance of timely delivery of new releases. Due to the nature of the music business, display of new releases close to authorized "street dates" is an important driver of both retail sales and customer satisfaction.

H.E.R. utilizes a proprietary inventory management system ("PRISM"). PRISM automates and integrates the functions of ordering product, receiving, warehousing, order fulfillment, ticket printing and perpetual inventory maintenance. PRISM also provides the basis to develop title specific billing to allow the Company to better serve its customers.

H.E.R. has implemented high-technology automated distribution equipment in Indianapolis, Indiana; Sparks, Nevada; and Toronto, Canada; as well as Warrington, United Kingdom, which was automated in fiscal 2002.

Within its facilities, H.E.R. operates return centers, including use of automated return processing equipment in the United States and Canada, to expedite the processing of customer returns. In order to minimize inventory investment, customer returns must be sorted and identified for either redistribution or return to vendors as expeditiously as possible. An item returned from one store may be required for shipment to another store. Therefore, timely recycling prevents purchasing duplicate product for a store whose order could be filled from returns from other stores.

Other Developments

In fiscal 2002, the Company's Channel of Choice business model and proprietary systems were implemented in Canada and the UK.

In fiscal 2002, H.E.R. began providing direct-to-store shipment of certain prerecorded music product to Best Buy Co., Inc., including new store opening inventories and replenishment of selected product. The Company believes Best Buy will enhance H.E.R.'s strategic growth plan for increasing sales domestically through customer diversification.

Handleman Online ("HOL"), the Company's e-commerce investment, was launched in November 2001 to enhance H.E.R.'s position in music category management. HOL provides both traditional and online retailers with an array of e-commerce related products and services, including outsourced inventory management and fulfillment and web design. During fiscal 2002, HOL began providing the web-site, maintenance and consumer direct fulfillment for two customers, JCPenney.com and Kmart.com (formerly branded as bluelight.com).

North Coast Entertainment

NCE, a subsidiary of Handleman Company, includes the Company's proprietary product operations. NCE is the umbrella company for subsidiaries which acquire exclusive licensing and distribution rights for home entertainment properties, including music and video products. Such items are manufactured and then distributed directly to distributors or retailers. In fiscal 2002, approximately 96% of NCE revenues were in North America. Many NCE products are categorized as budget, with many retailing for under $10. Such products are designed to provide high margins to the retailer at prices that generate impulse sales.

NCE provides the following opportunities:

- .. NCE enables the Company to take a more active, and more profitable, role in the production of home entertainment products.
- .. NCE provides the Company with a wide array of product development and licensing opportunities for music products. This enables H.E.R. to offer a broader range of more profitable products to its customers.
- .. NCE gives the Company access to new distribution channels, new markets and new customers. For example, the Company can cross-sell music and video to new or existing customers through any NCE subsidiary sales organization.

NCE's current portfolio is comprised of the following entities:

- .. Anchor Bay Entertainment ("ABE") is an independent home video label. In addition to acquiring films for home entertainment distribution, ABE markets a wide variety of products including the children's series, Thomas the Tank Engine. Thomas has been a part of the ABE portfolio for nearly a decade. ABE also has a wide array of fitness products including the Crunch series and most recently, the Yoga for Dummies series based on the successful For Dummies book franchise. ABE is perhaps most noted for being a marketer within the horror/science fiction genre and has the rights for Halloween, Highlander and The Evil Dead series.
- .. Madacy Entertainment Group ("Madacy") is an independent recording label which markets a range of music and video products with a catalog spanning all genres. Madacy is the largest independently distributed label in North America for the sixth consecutive year as published by Billboard Magazine. It provides licensing services and distributes music, video, DVD and customer entertainment premiums through its offices located in North America and Europe. Madacy Entertainment Group provides a variety of marketing services to their clients including custom packaging, manufacturing of audio, video and DVD, and the development of promotional campaigns.

NCE management will continue to focus on growing the business through licensing, acquiring or producing new products, as well as via new markets, new customers, geographical growth, growth within the home entertainment category and selective acquisitions and joint ventures.

Other Developments

In fiscal 2002, NCE expanded operations into the United Kingdom by launching Anchor Bay Entertainment UK, Limited. Similar to Anchor Bay Entertainment in the United States, the new company licenses, acquires and produces video titles for home entertainment distribution.

The Company substantially completed the closing of the operations of The itsy bitsy Entertainment Company ("TibECo"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of NCE. TibECo had incurred substantial operating losses in the past two fiscal years. During the third quarter of fiscal 2002, assets and liabilities were adjusted to net realizable value; the Company does not expect any further adjustments to recorded amounts.

Competition

Handleman is primarily a category manager of music products. The business of the Company is highly competitive as to both price and alternative supply arrangements. Besides competition among the Company's customers, the Company's customers compete with alternative sources from which consumers could purchase the same product, such as (1) specialty retail outlets, (2) electronic specialty stores, (3) record clubs, and (4) internet direct sales, including direct to home shipment and direct downloading through a consumer's home computer. Also, new methods of in-home delivery of entertainment software products are continually being introduced. The Company competes directly for sales to its customers with (1) manufacturers that bypass wholesalers and sell directly to retailers, (2) independent distributors, and (3) other category managers. In addition, some large retailers have "vertically integrated" so as to provide their own category management. Some of these companies, however, also purchase from independent category managers.

The Company believes that the distribution of home entertainment software will remain highly competitive. The Company believes that customer service, retailer performance and continual progress in operational efficiencies are the keys to growth and profitability in this competitive environment.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company has two business segments: Handleman Entertainment Resources ("H.E.R.") and North Coast Entertainment ("NCE"). H.E.R. consists of music category management and distribution operations, principally in North America and the United Kingdom ("UK"). NCE encompasses the Company's proprietary operations, which include music and video products, as well as licensing operations. Business segment revenues discussed herein include intercompany sales which are eliminated in consolidation.

The following table sets forth revenues, and the percentage contribution to consolidated revenues, for the Company's two business segments for the fiscal years ended April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000:

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's discussion and analysis of its financial condition and results of operations are based upon the Company's consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of these financial statements requires the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and the related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. The Company continually evaluates its estimates and assumptions which are based on historical experience and other various factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The results of these estimates and assumptions form the basis for making judgements about the carrying values of certain assets and liabilities. Historically, actual results have not significantly deviated from those determined using the estimates and assumptions described above.

The Company believes that the following are its critical accounting policies:

Recognition of Revenues and Future Returns - The Company recognizes revenues based upon the shipment of merchandise to customers. In addition, the Company reduces gross sales and direct product costs for estimated future returns at the time the merchandise is shipped. On a quarterly basis, the Company monitors the estimates for future returns and records adjustments as necessary.

Inventory Valuation - Merchandise inventories are recorded at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out) or market. The Company accounts for inventories using the full cost method which includes costs associated with acquiring and preparing inventory for distribution. The Company records an estimate for slow moving or obsolete inventory on a regular basis, although the effect of markdowns is minimized since the Company's vendors offer some level of return allowances and price protection. Adjustments to these slow moving/obsolete inventory estimates are made on a quarterly basis, as required.

The Company, principally in its proprietary product business, acquires video and audio licenses or rights giving it the exclusive privilege to manufacture and distribute such products. The cost of license advances and acquired rights are amortized based upon the sales volume method over a period which is the lesser of the term of the agreement or the products' estimated useful lives. The effective lives of the licenses and rights tend to range from three to five years. On a regular basis, the Company performs analyses comparing the carrying values of its license advances and acquired rights with the expected future economic benefit of these assets. Based upon such analyses, the Company adjusts, if necessary, the value of its license advances and acquired rights.

Long-Lived Assets - At each balance sheet date, the Company evaluates the carrying value and remaining estimated lives of long-lived assets for potential impairment by considering several factors, including management's plans for future operations, recent operating results, market trends and other economic facts relating to the operation to which the assets apply. Recoverability of these assets is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of such assets to the future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated by the assets. If such assets were deemed to be impaired as a result of this measurement, the impairment that would be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets as determined on a discounted basis.

Comparison of Fiscal 2002 with Fiscal 2001

For the fiscal year ended April 27, 2002 ("fiscal 2002"), revenues increased 13% to $1.34 billion from $1.19 billion for the year ended April 28, 2001 ("fiscal 2001"). Net income for fiscal 2002 was $37.1 million or $1.39 per diluted share, compared to net income of $42.0 million or $1.53 per diluted share for fiscal 2001.

H.E.R. revenues increased 15% to $1.22 billion for fiscal 2002 from $1.06 billion for fiscal 2001. Handleman UK Limited accounted for approximately 59% of the revenue increase, due to the commencement in February 2001 of category management, distribution and service to a new customer within the UK. Substantially all of the remaining increase was due to higher sales volume in the United States and Canada.

NCE revenues were $142.0 million for fiscal 2002 compared to $142.7 million for fiscal 2001. Lower revenues at Madacy Entertainment and The itsy bitsy Entertainment Company ("TibECo") of $8.8 million and $2.2 million, respectively, were partially offset by increased revenues at Anchor Bay Entertainment, Inc. and Anchor Bay Entertainment UK, Limited of $6.6 million and $4.0 million, respectively.

Consolidated direct product costs as a percentage of revenues was 77.7% for the year ended April 27, 2002, compared to 75.2% for the prior year. This increase in direct product costs as a percentage of revenues was primarily due to the Company's UK operation, which accounted for approximately 68% of the increase. The UK operation, which represented a higher proportion of sales in fiscal 2002, received lower supplier discounts than the Company received from suppliers in its North American operations. The Company is developing programs with key suppliers in the UK to improve supplier terms. Substantially all of the remaining increase in direct product costs as a percentage of revenues was due to higher product costs at the Madacy Entertainment business unit of NCE, which experienced the impact of inventory liquidation initiatives, as well as lower budget music sales which normally carry lower product costs as a percentage of revenues.

Consolidated selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses for fiscal 2002 were $244.0 million or 18.2% of revenues, compared to $224.4 million or 18.8% of revenues for fiscal 2001. H.E.R. SG&A expenses increased $15.3 million, or 9%, due to the increase in H.E.R. revenues; however, as a percentage of revenues, SG&A expenses at H.E.R. declined year over year. The remaining increase in SG&A expenses was primarily due to higher expenses at TibECo, resulting from the adjustment of certain assets and liabilities to net realizable value. The Company does not expect any further adjustments to recorded amounts at TibECo. The Company has substantially completed the closing of TibECo and the liquidation of its assets. The Company expects this closing process to be completed during fiscal 2003.

Consolidated income before interest, income taxes and minority interest ("operating income") for fiscal 2002 decreased to $54.0 million from $71.8 million for fiscal 2001. H.E.R. operating income of $65.2 million approximated fiscal 2001 operating income of $66.1 million. NCE incurred an operating loss for fiscal 2002 of $12.3 million, compared to operating income of $4.3 million for fiscal 2001. This decrease at NCE was mainly due to operating losses at Madacy Entertainment, which for the first time since being acquired by Handleman Company in fiscal 1995, incurred an operating loss. The Company is focused on restoring Madacy Entertainment revenues, direct product costs and SG&A expenses to historic levels. The Company expects Madacy Entertainment to return to profitability in fiscal 2003.

Interest expense, net was $4.2 million for fiscal 2002, compared to $2.6 million for fiscal 2001. This increase in interest expense, net was attributable to higher borrowing levels against the Company's revolving credit facility necessary to support working capital requirements.

Minority interest recognized in the statement of income represents the minority shareholders' portion of the income or loss for less than wholly-owned subsidiaries. Minority interest income was $.5 million for fiscal 2002, compared to minority interest expense of $.7 million for fiscal 2001.

The effective income tax rate for fiscal 2002 of 26.5% was lower than the fiscal 2001 tax rate of 38.2%. This decrease in the tax rate was primarily due to tax benefits recognized in fiscal 2002 related to TibECO prior year operating losses and, to a lesser extent, certain tax planning initiatives.

Accounts receivable, net was $274.5 million at April 27, 2002, compared to $265.3 million at April 28, 2001. This increase was due to the higher sales level in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2002, compared to the fourth quarter of fiscal 2001.

Merchandise inventories was $126.1 million at April 27, 2002, compared to $113.3 million at April 28, 2001. This increase was mainly due to higher inventory requirements to support the Company's growing business in the UK and new customer requirements in the United States.

Property and equipment, net was $67.7 million at April 27, 2002, compared to $56.9 million at April 28, 2001. This increase was due to the purchase of new store fixtures for certain customers and investments in computer software.

Other assets, net was $94.5 million at April 27, 2002, compared to $101.8 million at April 28, 2001. This reduction was principally due to a decrease in license advances and acquired rights.

Debt, current portion was $3.6 million at April 27, 2002, compared to $14.6 million at April 28, 2001. This decrease was due to a payment made in November 2001 related to the Company's senior note agreement.

The reduction in accrued and other liabilities to $39.1 million at April 27, 2002 from $44.8 million at April 28, 2001 was predominately due to decreases in income taxes payable and accrued royalties.

During fiscal 2002, the Company repurchased 456,700 shares of its common stock at a cost of $5.4 million, leaving 26,471,743 shares outstanding at April 27, 2002. Under the current authorization, which was approved by the Board of Directors in December 2000 and has no expiration date, the Company can repurchase in fiscal year 2003, or later, approximately 1,600,000 additional shares.

In fiscal 2002, H.E.R. began providing direct-to-store shipment of certain prerecorded music product to Best Buy Co., Inc., including new store opening inventories and replenishment of selected product. The Company believes Best Buy will enhance H.E.R.'s strategic growth plan for increasing sales domestically through customer diversification.

During the Company's third quarter of fiscal 2002, Kmart Corporation, a key customer of the Company, filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection. As part of this proceeding, the Company was designated a "critical vendor." This designation allowed the Company to collect its pre-petition H.E.R. accounts receivable balance. On February 1, 2002, the Company received a $49.0 million payment from the key customer, representing substantially all amounts currently due at that time. The Company immediately resumed shipping product to this customer and believes the customer's subsequent closing of 283 lower performing stores will negatively impact sales by approximately $35.0 million annually. However, because these stores were under performing, the effect on the Company's operating income will not be material.

In fiscal 2003, the Company expects revenues to increase in the mid-single digit range. This growth rate is dependent upon several factors including the timing and specifics of the Company's key customer Chapter 11 restructuring and the customer's ability to revive store sales, the popularity of new music releases, and the health of both the economy and the retail sector. Direct product costs, as a percentage of revenues, is expected to be comparable to that in fiscal 2002, while SG&A expenses are forecasted to continue to improve slightly. The Company expects a more normalized tax rate in the 37-39% range for fiscal 2003. The Company expects net income to increase in-line with, or slightly above, the revenue growth rate.

Comparison of Fiscal 2001 with Fiscal 2000

For the fiscal year ended April 28, 2001, revenues increased 5% to $1.19 billion from $1.14 billion for the fiscal year ended April 29, 2000 ("fiscal 2000"). Net income for fiscal 2001 was $42.0 million or $1.53 per diluted share, compared to net income of $38.6 million or $1.30 per diluted share for fiscal 2000.

H.E.R. revenues increased 5% to $1.06 billion for fiscal 2001 from $1.01 billion for fiscal 2000. Over 60% of the increase in revenues was attributable to H.E.R.'s United Kingdom operations where the Company gained the ASDA chain as a new customer in February 2001, and substantially all of the remaining increase was attributable to improved sales in the United States throughout the year.

NCE revenues for fiscal 2001 were $142.7 million, essentially the same as $142.0 million for fiscal 2000. Increased revenues of approximately $12.5 million in the Anchor Bay Entertainment unit were offset by declines at the Madacy Entertainment and The itsy bitsy Entertainment Company operating units.

Consolidated direct product costs as a percentage of revenues was 75.2% for the year ended April 28, 2001, compared to 74.6% for the year ended April 29, 2000. The slight increase was due to higher costs as a percentage of revenues within the NCE segment.

Consolidated selling, general and administrative expenses for fiscal 2001 were $224.4 million or 18.8% of revenues, compared to $219.6 million or 19.3% of revenues for fiscal 2000. SG&A expenses at NCE approximated prior year levels, whereas H.E.R. expenses increased due to the increase in H.E.R. revenues; however, as a percentage of revenues, SG&A expenses at H.E.R. declined year over year.

Consolidated income before interest, income taxes and minority interest for fiscal 2001 increased to $71.8 million from $69.2 million for fiscal 2000. H.E.R. operating income rose 21% to $66.1 million in fiscal 2001 from $54.8 million in fiscal 2000. This increase in H.E.R. operating income was primarily attributable to North American operations. NCE operating income was $4.3 million in fiscal 2001, compared with $14.2 million in fiscal 2000. This decrease was due to a higher operating loss at TibECO, as well as reduced operating income at Madacy Entertainment.

Interest expense, net was $2.6 million for fiscal 2001, compared to $3.2 million for fiscal 2000. The decrease in interest expense, net was attributable to lower borrowing levels.

Edgar Filing: HANDLEMAN CO /MI/ - Form 10-K

Minority interest recognized in the statement of income represents the minority shareholders' portion of the income or loss for less than wholly-owned subsidiaries. Minority interest expense was $.7 million for fiscal 2001, compared to $1.1 million for fiscal 2000.

The effective income tax rate for fiscal 2001 of 38.2% was lower than the fiscal 2000 tax rate of 39.8%. This decrease in the rate from fiscal 2000 was primarily due to tax benefits resulting from tax planning initiatives. The effective rate for fiscal 2001 was higher than expected due to higher losses at TibECo where no tax benefit on these losses was recognized because TibECo was an unconsolidated subsidiary for income tax purposes for fiscal 2001.

Accounts receivable, net was $265.3 million at April 28, 2001, compared to $234.0 million at April 29, 2000. This increase was due to the higher sales level in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2001, compared to the fourth quarter of fiscal 2000.

Other assets, net was $101.8 million at April 28, 2001, compared to $90.0 million at April 29, 2000. This increase was primarily attributable to the cost of license advances and acquired rights.

The increase in other current liabilities to $44.8 million at April 28, 2001 from $31.2 million at April 29, 2000 was chiefly due to increases in accrued royalties and the timing of income tax payments.

Debt, non-current was $53.0 million at April 28, 2001, compared to $34.0 million at April 29, 2000. This change was caused by additional borrowings under the Company's revolving line of credit and the inclusion of the Handleman UK revolving line of credit borrowings.

During fiscal 2001, the Company repurchased 1,230,880 shares of its common stock at a cost of $12.1 million, leaving 26,540,000 shares outstanding as of April 28, 2001.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Working capital at April 27, 2002 was $194.5 million, compared to $162.9 million at April 28, 2001. The working capital ratio was 1.8 to 1 at April 27, 2002, compared to 1.6 to 1 at April 28, 2001.

Property and equipment, net consists primarily of display fixtures, computer hardware and software, warehouse equipment and facilities. The Company also acquires or licenses video and music products which it markets. Purchases of these assets are expected to be funded primarily by cash flow from operations.

On August 8, 2001, the Company replaced its $150.0 million revolving credit facility with an unsecured $170.0 million revolving credit agreement, arranged with a consortium of banks. This new agreement expires in August 2004. The balance outstanding under this credit agreement as of April 27, 2002 was $46.6 million. The Company also had $10.7 million outstanding as of April 27, 2002 under a senior note agreement with a group of insurance companies, of which $3.6 million matures in fiscal 2003. See Note 4 of Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding the revolving credit facility and the senior notes, including scheduled maturities.

The borrowing base under the new revolving credit agreement is limited to the lesser of (a) $170.0 million, or (b) 80% of the net accounts receivable balances plus 100% of the cash balances of the domestic companies.

In fiscal 2002, a subsidiary entered into a (pound)2.0 million credit facility

Edgar Filing: HANDLEMAN CO /MI/ - Form 10-K

(approximately $2.9 million U.S.) with a certain bank. As of April 27, 2002, no amounts were outstanding. The Company has guaranteed repayment of amounts borrowed under this facility.

Net cash provided from operating activities included in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows increased to $49.1 million for fiscal 2002 from $43.9 million for fiscal 2001.

Net cash used by investing activities was $50.3 million for fiscal 2002, compared to net cash used by investing activities of $44.7 million for fiscal 2001. Additions to property and equipment increased to $31.5 million for fiscal 2002, compared to $26.5 million for fiscal 2001. This increase was due to the purchase of store fixtures for a certain customer and the investment in computer software. License advances and acquired rights were $18.9 million for fiscal 2002, compared to $23.0 million for fiscal 2001.

Net cash used by financing activities was $12.2 million for fiscal 2002, compared to $6.9 million provided from financing activities for fiscal 2001. This change was principally due to lower borrowings under the Company's revolving credit agreement in fiscal 2002.

Management believes that the credit agreement and the senior note agreement, will provide sufficient amounts to fund day-to-day operations and higher peak seasonal demands.

The following table summarizes the Company's contractual cash obligations and commitments as of April 27, 2002, along with their expected effect on its liquidity and cash flows in future periods (in thousands of dollars):

Contractual Cash Obligations and Commitments

Due by Period

The Company has no significant investments that are accounted for under the equity method in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Investments that are accounted for under the equity method have no liabilities associated with them that would be considered material to the Company.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In fiscal 2003, the Company will adopt Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 142, "Goodwill and Intangible Assets," which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in 2001. SFAS No. 142 changes the accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives from an amortization approach to a non-amortization (impairment) approach. SFAS No. 142 requires amortization of goodwill recorded in connection with previous business combinations to cease upon adoption of the Statement. The Company will adopt SFAS No. 142 in the first quarter of fiscal 2003. The Company analyzed the impact SFAS No. 142 will have on its consolidated financial position and results of operations and determined that no adjustment to the carrying value of goodwill will be required upon adoption of this statement. The Company will perform impairment analyses for goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives on an annual basis going forward. Adoption of SFAS No. 142 will result in an increase in net income of approximately $1.1 million in fiscal 2003.

In 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." SFAS No. 144 supersedes SFAS No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of," and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations for a Disposal of a Segment of Business." SFAS No. 144 requires the recognition of an impairment loss only if the carrying amount of longlived assets is not recoverable from its undiscounted cash flow and measures an impairment loss as the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the assets. Goodwill is excluded from the scope of this Statement. SFAS No. 144 requires that a long-lived asset to be abandoned, exchanged for a similar productive asset or distributed to owners in a spin-off, be considered held and used until it is disposed. This Statement requires that the accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, be used for all previously held and used, or newly acquired long-lived assets. Discontinued operations are no longer measured on a net realizable value basis, and future operating losses are no longer recognized before they occur. SFAS No. 144 broadens the presentation of discontinued operations in the income statement to include a component of an entity (rather than a segment of a business). A component of an entity comprises operations and cash flows that can be clearly distinguished, operationally and for financial reporting purposes, from the rest of the entity. This Statement becomes effective for the Company on April 28, 2002, and the Company does not believe SFAS No. 144 will have a significant effect on its operating results.

Other Information

The Company's financial statements have reported amounts based on historical costs which represent dollars of varying purchasing power and do not measure the effects of inflation. If the financial statements had been restated for inflation, net income would have been lower because depreciation expense would have to be increased to reflect the most current costs.

Inflation within the economies in which the Company does business has not had a material effect on the Company's results of operations.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Accounting Policies:

Business

The Company is comprised of two business segments. Handleman Entertainment Resources ("H.E.R.") is a category manager and distributor of prerecorded music to mass merchants, principally in North America and the United Kingdom ("UK"). North Coast Entertainment ("NCE") is responsible for the Company's proprietary operations, which include music and video products, as well as licensing operations.

Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year ends on the Saturday closest to April 30. Fiscal years 2002, 2001 and 2000 consisted of 52 weeks.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and all subsidiaries where the Company has voting control. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated. Minority interest recognized in the statement of income represents the minority shareholders' portion of the income (loss) for less than wholly-owned subsidiaries. The minority interest share of the net assets of these subsidiaries of $2,829,000, $4,187,000 and $5,000,000 as of April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000, respectively, is included in other liabilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. The Company does not have any material equity investments other than in companies in which they have voting control.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Foreign Currency Translation

The Company utilizes the policies outlined in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 52, "Foreign Currency Translation," to convert the balance sheet and operations of its foreign subsidiaries to United States dollars. Net transaction gains (losses) included in the statement of income were $157,000, $(123,000) and $383,000 for the years ended April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000, respectively.

Recognition of Revenue and Future Returns

Revenues are recognized upon shipment of the merchandise. The Company reduces gross sales and direct product costs for estimated future returns at the time the merchandise is sold.

Inventory Valuation

Merchandise inventories are recorded at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out method) or market. The Company accounts for inventories using the full cost method which includes costs associated with acquiring and preparing inventory for distribution. Costs associated with acquiring and preparing inventory for distribution of $10,888,000, $11,086,000 and $11,178,000 were incurred during the years ended April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000, respectively. Merchandise inventories as of April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000 included $883,000, $855,000 and $843,000, respectively, of such costs.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Upon retirement or disposal, the asset cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the respective accounts and the resulting gain or loss is included in the consolidated statement of income for the period. Repair costs are charged to expense as incurred.

Depreciation

Depreciation is computed using primarily the straight-line method based on the following estimated useful lives:

Display fixtures	5 years
Computer hardware and software	3-5 years
Equipment, furniture and other	3-10 years
Buildings and improvements	10-40 years

License Advances and Acquired Rights

Edgar Filing: HANDLEMAN CO /MI/ - Form 10-K

The Company, principally in its proprietary product business, acquires video and audio licenses or rights giving it the exclusive privilege to manufacture and distribute such products. The cost of license advances and acquired rights are included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheet and are amortized based upon the sales volume method over a period which is the lesser of the term of the agreement or the products' estimated useful lives. The effective lives of the licenses and rights tend to range from three to five years. As of April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000, licenses and acquired rights, net of amortization, amounted to $67,198,000, $74,181,000 and $61,390,000, respectively.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist primarily of the excess of consideration paid over the estimated fair values of net assets of businesses acquired. Such amounts included in other assets in the consolidated balance sheet as of April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000 are $13,958,000, $19,719,000 and $24,575,000, which are net of amortization of $21,212,000, $15,756,000 and $10,900,000, respectively. These assets were being amortized using the straight-line method over periods ranging from four to 15 years.

In fiscal 2003, the Company will adopt SFAS No. 142, "Goodwill and Intangible Assets," which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board effective in 2001. SFAS No. 142 changes the accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives from an amortization approach to a non-amortization (impairment) approach. SFAS No. 142 requires amortization of goodwill recorded in connection with previous business combinations to cease upon adoption of the Statement. The Company will adopt SFAS No. 142 in the first quarter of fiscal 2003. The Company analyzed the impact SFAS No. 142 will have on its consolidated financial position and results of operations and determined that no adjustment to the carrying value of goodwill will be required upon adoption of this statement. The Company will perform impairment analyses for goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives on an annual basis going forward. Adoption of SFAS No. 142 will result in an increase in net income of approximately $1,100,000 in fiscal 2003.

Long-Lived Assets

In 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets." SFAS No. 144 supersedes SFAS No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of," and the accounting and reporting provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, "Reporting the Results of Operations for a Disposal of a Segment of Business." SFAS No. 144 requires the recognition of an impairment loss only if the carrying amount of long-lived assets is not recoverable from its undiscounted cash flow and measures an impairment loss as the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the assets. Goodwill is excluded from the scope of this Statement. SFAS No. 144 requires that a long-lived asset to be abandoned, exchanged for a similar productive asset or distributed to owners in a spin-off, be considered held and used until it is disposed. This statement requires that the accounting model for long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, be used for all previously held and used, or newly acquired long-lived assets. Discontinued operations are no longer measured on a net realizable value basis, and future operating losses are no longer recognized before they occur. SFAS No. 144 broadens the presentation of discontinued operations in the income statement to include a component of an entity (rather than a segment of a business). A component of an entity comprises operations and cash flows that can be clearly distinguished, operationally and for financial reporting purposes, from the rest of the entity. This Statement becomes effective for the Company on April 28, 2002 and the Company does not believe SFAS No. 144 will have a significant effect on its operating results.

Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Financial Instruments

The Company has evaluated the fair value of those assets and liabilities identified as financial instruments under SFAS No. 107, "Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments." The Company estimates that fair values generally approximated carrying values at April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000. Fair values have been determined through information obtained from market sources and management estimates.

Earnings Per Share

For computing diluted earnings per share in accordance with SFAS No. 128, "Earnings Per Share," additional weighted average shares attributable to outstanding stock options were 107,000, 140,000 and 267,000 for the years ended April 27, 2002, April 28, 2001 and April 29, 2000, respectively.

Reclassifications

The fiscal year 2001 and 2000 Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows have been conformed to the presentation adopted in fiscal year 2002.

2. Segment Information:

The Company has determined, using the management approach, that it operates in two business segments: Handleman Entertainment Resources provides category management and distribution services of music products to select mass merchants; and North Coast Entertainment encompasses the Company's proprietary activities, which include music and video products, as well as licensing operations.

The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those described in Note 1, "Accounting Policies." Segment data includes intersegment revenues, as well as a charge allocating all corporate costs to the operating segments. The Company evaluates performance of its segments and allocates resources to them based on income before interest, income taxes and minority interest ("segment income").

7. Stock Plans:

During fiscal 2002, the Company's shareholders approved the adoption of the Handleman Company 2001 Stock Option and Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), which authorizes the granting of stock options, performance shares and restricted stock. The Company's 1998 Performance Incentive Plan was terminated concurrent with the approval of the 2001 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, except as to then outstanding awards under the 1998 Plan.

The maximum number of shares of stock which may be issued under the 2001 Stock Option and Incentive Plan is 1,600,000 shares. In fiscal 2002, the Company issued 200,900 performance shares of its common stock under the Plan. These performance shares will be distributed to the participants if certain fixed performance criteria are satisfied by May 1, 2004.
