ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS.

On February 19, 2003, U.S. Bancorp (the Company) announced that its Board of Directors had approved a plan to effect the spin-off of its capital markets business unit, consisting of the investment banking and brokerage activities primarily conducted by its wholly-owned subsidiary, U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray Inc. In 2002, the capital markets business unit had average assets of $3.0 billion, generated revenues of $737.3 million (5.8 percent of total revenues) and contributed $1.1 million of net income, representing less than 1 percent of the Company's consolidated net income. This distribution does not include the brokerage, financial advisory or asset management services offered to customers through the retail brokerage platform of U.S. Bank National Association, U.S. Bancorp Investments, Inc. or U.S. Bancorp Asset Management, Inc. The spin-off would be effected through a tax-free dividend of 100 percent of the Company's ownership interest in the capital markets business, and the Company would retain $215 million of subordinated debt of the new company. The distribution is subject to certain conditions including SEC registration, regulatory review and approval and a determination that the distribution will be tax-free to the Company and its shareholders. While expected to be completed in the third quarter of 2003, the Company has no obligation to consummate the distribution, whether or not these conditions are satisfied.
