Item 1.01. Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 6, 2005, the Compensation Committee (the Committee ) of the Board of Directors of Cerner Corporation (the Company ) approved the adoption of the 2005 Cerner Corporation Enhanced Severance Pay Plan, as amended and restated (the Plan ).

The Plan amends and restates the current discretionary Enhanced Severance Pay Plan (dated October 14, 2003, filed as Exhibit 10(a) to Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 3, 2004), and covers essentially all of the Company s U.S. based (including its U.S. based subsidiaries) permanent, full-time salaried employees (currently approximately 5,785 employees). Under the Plan, eligible Company employees will receive cash payments upon: (i) certain termination without cause events, which severance benefits will range from two (2) to fifty-two (52) weeks (depending on the employee s role and tenure with the Company) of such employee s annual base salary and contingent upon the employee satisfying certain conditions, including without limitation the execution of a severance and release agreement with the Company providing for a complete release of all present and future claims by the eligible employee; or (ii) qualifying terminations or resignations for Good Reason following a Change in Control, which severance benefits will be paid at 1.5 times the calculated weekly severance eligibility based on role and tenure and will include both base salary and average cash bonus.

Subject to applicable laws, the Plan Administrator may amend or terminate the Plan at any time, but no amendment or termination may affect the right to any unpaid benefit of any participant whose termination date has occurred prior to amendment or termination of the Plan, and no amendment or termination shall occur after the occurrence of a Change of Control.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Plan. The foregoing description of the Plan does not purport to be a complete statement of the parties rights and obligations under the Plan and additional terms and conditions are set forth in the Plan, a copy of which is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
