FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. (Pinnacle Financial) may from time to time make written or oral statements, including statements contained in this report which may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act). The words expect , anticipate , intend , consider , plan , believe , seek , should , estimate , and similar expressions a identify such forward-looking statements, but other statements may constitute forward-looking statements. These statements should be considered subject to various risks and uncertainties. Such forward-looking statements are made based upon management s belief as well as assumptions made by, and information currently available to, management pursuant to safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Pinnacle Financial s actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors. Such factors are described below and include, without limitation, (i) unanticipated deterioration in the financial condition of borrowers resulting in significant increases in loan losses and provisions for those losses, (ii) increased competition with other financial institutions, (iii) lack of sustained growth in the economy in the Nashville, Tennessee area, (iv) rapid fluctuations or unanticipated changes in interest rates, (v) the inability of Pinnacle Financial to satisfy regulatory requirements for its expansion plans, (vi) changes in the legislative and regulatory environment and (vii) other risk factors including those discussed in Pinnacle Financial s annual report on Form 10-KSB and other reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Many of such factors are beyond Pinnacle Financial s ability to control or predict, and readers are cautioned not to put undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. Pinnacle Financial does not intend to update or reissue any forward-looking statements contained in this report as a result of new information or other circumstances that may become known to Pinnacle Financial.

PINNACLE FINANCIAL PARTNERS, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. (Pinnacle Financial) was formed on February 28, 2000 (inception) and is a bank holding company whose business is conducted by its wholly-owned subsidiary, Pinnacle National Bank (Pinnacle National). Additionally, PFP Title Company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Pinnacle National. Pinnacle National is a commercial bank located in Nashville, Tennessee. Pinnacle National provides a full range of banking services in its primary market area of Davidson County and the surrounding counties. Pinnacle National commenced its banking operations on October 27, 2000. Prior to October 27, 2000, Pinnacle Financial was a development stage enterprise as defined by Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 7, Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises , and devoted substantially all its efforts to establishing Pinnacle National.

Basis of Presentation These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Pinnacle Financial. Significant intercompany transactions and accounts are eliminated in consolidation.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-QSB. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three months ended March 31, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2003. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company s Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Use of Estimates The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities as of the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term relate to the determination of the allowance for loan losses and valuation of deferred income tax assets.

Stock-Based Compensation In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure, an amendment of FASB Statement No. 123 . This Statement amends Statement No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation , to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In addition, this Statement amends the disclosure requirements of Statement No. 123 to require prominent disclosures in both annual and interim financial statements. Certain of the disclosure modifications are required for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002 and are included below.

Pinnacle Financial applies APB Opinion 25 and related interpretations in accounting for the stock option plan. All option grants carry exercise prices equal to or above the fair value of the common stock on the date of grant. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized. Had compensation cost for Pinnacle Financial s stock option plan been determined based on the fair value at the grant dates for awards under the plan consistent with the method prescribed in SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, Pinnacle Financial s net income and net income per share would have been adjusted to the pro forma amounts indicated below for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002:

For purposes of these calculations, the fair value of options granted for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 was estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and the following assumptions:

	2003	2002
Risk free interest rate	1.25%	1.74%
Expected life of the options	5.0 years	5.0 years
Expected dividend yield	0.00%	0.00%
Expected volatility	38.1%	69.7%
Weighted average fair value	$4.67	$5.69

Income Per Common Share Basic earnings per share (EPS) is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted. The difference between basic and diluted weighted average shares outstanding was attributable to common stock options and warrants.

As of March 31, 2003, there were common stock options outstanding to purchase up to 404,100 common shares. Substantially all of these shares have exercise prices, which when considered in relation to the average market price of Pinnacle Financial s common stock for the respective reporting period, are considered dilutive and are considered in Pinnacle Financial s diluted income per share calculation for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002. Additionally, as of March 31, 2003, Pinnacle Financial had dilutive warrants outstanding to purchase 203,000 common shares which have also been considered in the calculation of Pinnacle Financial s diluted income per share for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002.

The basic net income per share information for the three months ended March 31, 2002 was computed based on 2,312,053 common shares. On June 14, 2002, Pinnacle Financial issued 1,200,000 additional common shares in conjunction with a common stock offering to the general public and then on June 24, 2002 issued an additional 180,000 shares in conjunction with the underwriters exercise of the over-allotment option. As a result, 3,692,053 common shares were outstanding for the three months ended March 31, 2003.

Comprehensive Income (Loss) Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income describes comprehensive income as the total of all components of comprehensive income including net income. Other comprehensive income refers to revenues, expenses, gains and losses that under generally accepted accounting principles are included in comprehensive income but excluded from net income. Currently, Pinnacle Financial s other comprehensive income (loss) consists of unrealized gains and losses, net of deferred income taxes, on available-for-sale securities. Other comprehensive loss for the three months ended March 31, 2003 of $372,000 compared to an other comprehensive loss of $163,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2002.

Business Segments Pinnacle Financial operates in one business segment, commercial banking, and has no additional individually significant business segments.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements On July 30, 2002, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards Statement No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities (SFAS No. 146). The standard replaces EITF Issue No. 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring) and requires companies to recognize costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. Examples of costs covered by the standard include lease termination costs and certain employee severance costs that are associated with a restructuring, discontinued operation, plant closing, or other exit or disposal activity. SFAS 146 is effective prospectively to exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. Pinnacle Financial adopted this new standard on January 1, 2003. The adoption of this new standard had no effect on the financial position or results of operations of Pinnacle Financial as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2003.

In November 2002, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor s Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness to Others, an interpretation of FASB Statements No. 5, 57, and 107 and a rescission of FASB Interpretation No. 34. This Interpretation elaborates on the disclosures to be made by a guarantor in its interim and annual financial statements about its obligations under guarantees issued. The Interpretation also clarifies that a guarantor is required to recognize, at inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken. The initial recognition and measurement provisions of the Interpretation are applicable to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002 and are not expected to have a material effect on the Company s financial statements. The disclosure requirements are effective for financial statements of interim and annual periods ending after December 15, 2002. Pinnacle Financial adopted this new standard on January 1, 2003. The adoption of this new standard had no effect on the financial position or results of operations of Pinnacle Financial as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2003.

The Company realized $18,000 in net gains from the sale of $12,404,000 of available-for-sale securities during the three months ended March 31, 2003. At March 31, 2003, approximately $50,739,000 of the Company s available-for-sale portfolio was pledged to secure public fund deposits and securities sold under agreements to repurchase.

NOTE 3. LOANS AND ALLOWANCE FOR LOAN LOSSES

The composition of loans at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 is summarized as follows:

	2003	2002
Commercial real estate Mortgage	$ 64,123,902	$ 58,964,823
Commercial real estate Construction	6,372,706	5,396,697

Consumer Other	8,056,374	7,155,183
Total Consumer	50,547,775	46,659,780
Total Loans	228,842,646	209,743,436
Allowance for loan losses	(2,860,000)	(2,677,043)

Loans, net	$225,982,646	$207,066,393

Using standard industry codes, Pinnacle Financial periodically analyzes its commercial loan portfolio to determine if a concentration of credit risk exists to any one or more industries. Pinnacle Financial has a meaningful credit exposure (loans outstanding plus unfunded lines of credit) to borrowers in the trucking industry and to operators of nonresidential buildings. Credit exposure to the trucking industry approximated $29.5 million and $27.1 million, while credit exposure to operators of nonresidential buildings approximated $7.8 million and $9.6 million at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, respectively. Levels of exposure to these industry groups are periodically evaluated in order to determine if additional allowance allocations are warranted.

At March 31, 2003 and 2002, Pinnacle Financial had certain impaired loans on nonaccruing interest status. The principal balance of these nonaccrual loans amounted to $1,095,000 and $220,000 at March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively. In each case, Pinnacle Financial reversed all previously accrued interest income against current year earnings. Had these loans been on accruing status, interest income would have been higher by $29,000 and $4,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Changes in the allowance for loan losses for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and for the year ended December 31, 2002 are as follows:

	2003	2002
Balance at beginning of period	$2,677,043	$1,832,000
Charged-off loans	(105,069)	(92,957)
Recovery of previously charged-off loans
Provision for loan losses	288,026	938,000
Balance at end of period	$2,860,000	$2,677,043

At March 31, 2003, Pinnacle Financial has granted loans and other extensions of credit amounting to approximately $7,084,000 to certain directors, executive officers, and their related entities of which $3,799,000 had been drawn upon. The terms on these loans and extensions are on substantially the same terms customary for other persons for the type of loan involved.

During the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, Pinnacle Financial sold participations in certain loans to correspondent banks at an interest rate that was less than that of the borrower s rate of interest. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, Pinnacle Financial has reflected a gain on the sale of these participated loans for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 of approximately $2,000 and $20,000, respectively, which is attributable to the present value of the future net cash flows of the difference between the interest payments the borrower is projected to pay Pinnacle Financial and the amount of interest that will be owed the correspondent based on their future participation in the loan.

NOTE 4. INCOME TAXES

Income tax expense for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 consists of the following:

	2003	2002
Current tax expense:
Federal	$	$
State
Total current tax expense
Deferred tax expense:
Federal	164,310	22,968
State	30,838	4,359
Total deferred tax expense	195,148	27,327
Change in valuation allowance
	$195,148	$27,327

Pinnacle Financial s income tax expense differs from the amounts computed by applying the Federal income tax statutory rates of 34% in 2003 and 2002 to income before income taxes. A reconciliation of the differences for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 is as follows:

	2003	2002
Income taxes at statutory rate	$ 193,163	$ 24,450
State tax benefit, net of federal tax effect	20,353	2,877
Other items	(18,368)
Change in valuation allowance
Income tax expense	$ 195,148	$ 27,327

Securities available for sale	244,583	473,432
	441,630	640,151
Net deferred tax assets	$ 1,269,318	$ 1,235,617

At March 31, 2003, Pinnacle Financial has available net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $1,104,000 for Federal and state income tax purposes. If unused, the carryforwards will expire beginning in 2020.

NOTE 5. OFF-BALANCE SHEET COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

In the normal course of business, Pinnacle Financial has entered into off-balance sheet financial instruments which include commitments to extend credit (ie. including unfunded lines of credit) and standby letters of credit. Commitments to extend credit are usually the result of lines of credit granted to existing borrowers under agreements that the total outstanding indebtedness will not exceed a specific amount during the term of the indebtedness. Typical borrowers are commercial concerns that use lines of credit to supplement their treasury management functions, thus their total outstanding indebtedness may fluctuate during any time period based on the seasonality of their business and the resultant timing of their cash flows. Other typical lines of credit are related to home equity loans granted to consumers. Commitments to extend credit generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee.

Standby letters of credit are generally issued on behalf of an applicant (our customer) to a specifically named beneficiary and are the result of a particular business arrangement that exists between the applicant and the beneficiary. Standby letters of credit have fixed expiration dates and are usually for terms of two years or less unless terminated beforehand due to criteria specified in the standby letter of credit. A typical arrangement involves the applicant routinely being indebted to the beneficiary for such items as inventory purchases, insurance, utilities, lease guarantees or other third party commercial transactions. The standby letter of credit would permit the beneficiary to obtain payment from Pinnacle Financial under certain prescribed circumstances. Subsequently, Pinnacle Financial would then seek reimbursement from the applicant pursuant to the terms of the standby letter of credit.

Pinnacle Financial follows the same credit policies and underwriting practices when making these commitments as it does for on-balance sheet instruments. Each customer s creditworthiness is evaluated on a case-by-case basis and the amount of collateral obtained, if any, is based on management s credit evaluation of the customer. Collateral held varies but may include cash, real estate and improvements, marketable securities, accounts receivable, inventory, equipment, and personal property.

The contractual amounts of these commitments are not reflected in the consolidated financial statements and would only be reflected if drawn upon. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the contractual amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. However, should the commitments be drawn upon and should our customers default on their resulting obligation to us, Pinnacle Financial s maximum exposure to credit loss, without consideration of collateral, is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments.

A summary of Pinnacle Financial s total contractual amount for all off-balance sheet commitments at March 31, 2003 is as follows:

Commitments to extend credit	$71,373,000
Standby letters of credit	17,480,000

At March 31, 2003, the fair value of Pinnacle Financial s standby letters of credit was $24,000. This amount represents the unamortized fee associated with these standby letters of credit and is included in the consolidated balance sheet of Pinnacle Financial. This fair value will decrease over time as the existing standby letters of credit approach their expiration dates.

In the normal course of business, Pinnacle Financial may become involved in various legal proceedings. As of March 31, 2003, the management of Pinnacle Financial is not aware of any such proceedings against Pinnacle Financial.

NOTE 6. COMMON STOCK

Three executives of the Company (the Chairman of the Board, the President and Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Administrative Officer) along with nine members of the Company s Board of Directors and two other organizers of the Company (collectively, the Company s Founders) purchased an aggregate of 406,000 shares of common stock during the initial public offering, which represented approximately 21% of the offering. The Founders were awarded common stock warrants which allow each individual the ability to purchase the common stock of the Company at $10 per share. Each person was given a warrant equal to one common share for every two shares purchased in connection with the initial public offering of the stock. As a group, 203,000 warrants were awarded. The warrants vest in one-third increments over a three-year period that began on August 18, 2000 and are exercisable until August 18, 2010. As of March 31, 2003, two thirds of the warrants for approximately 135,300 shares were exercisable.

Pinnacle Financial has a stock option plan under which it has granted options to its employees to purchase common stock at or above the fair market value on the date of grant. All of the options are intended to be incentive stock options qualifying under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code for favorable tax treatment. Options under the plan vest in varying increments over five years beginning one year after the date of the grant and are exercisable over a period of ten years from the date of grant. The shareholders of Pinnacle Financial approved an allocation of 520,000 common shares toward this plan.

A summary of the plan changes during the three months ended March 31, 2003 and for the year ended December 31, 2002 is as follows:

	Number	Weighted-Average Exercise Price
Outstanding at December 31, 2001	239,200	$ 9.48

NOTE 7. REGULATORY MATTERS

Pinnacle National is subject to certain restrictions on the amount of dividends that may be declared without prior regulatory approval. At March 31, 2003, no dividends could be declared by Pinnacle National without regulatory approval.

Pinnacle Financial and Pinnacle National are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory, and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, Pinnacle Financial and Pinnacle National must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of the assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. Pinnacle Financial s and Pinnacle National s capital amounts and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require Pinnacle Financial and Pinnacle National to maintain minimum amounts and ratios of Total and Tier I capital to risk-weighted assets and of Tier I capital to average assets. Management believes, as of March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, Pinnacle Financial and Pinnacle National meet all capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject.

(*) Average assets for the above calculations were first quarter of 2003 for the March 2003 amounts and fourth quarter of 2002 for the December 2002 amounts.

In connection with approving Pinnacle National s deposit insurance application, the FDIC imposed an additional capital requirement which remains in effect until October 27, 2003. Pursuant to this requirement, Pinnacle National must maintain a Tier I capital to average assets ratio of at least 8%. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, as noted above, Pinnacle National s Tier 1 capital to average assets ratio was 8.7% and 9.8%, respectively.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Unless this Management s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations indicates otherwise or the context otherwise requires, the terms we, our, us, Pinnacle Financial Partners or Pinnacle Financial as used herein refer to Pinnacle Financial Partners, Inc. and its subsidiary Pinnacle National Bank, which we sometimes refer to as Pinnacle National, our bank subsidiary or our bank.

The following is a discussion of our financial condition at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 and our results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002. The purpose of this discussion is to focus on information about our financial condition and results of operations which is not otherwise apparent from the annual audited consolidated financial statements or the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements. You should read the following discussion and analysis along with our consolidated financial statements and the related notes included in our 2002 Annual Report on Form 10-KSB.

Critical Accounting Policies

The accounting principles we follow and our methods of applying these principles conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and with general practices within the banking industry. In connection with the application of those principles, we have made judgments and estimates which, in the case of the determination of our allowance for loan losses (ALL) and the recognition of our deferred income tax assets, have been critical to the determination of our financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

Allowance for Loan Losses (ALL). Our management assesses the adequacy of the ALL prior to the end of each calendar quarter. This assessment includes procedures to estimate the allowance and test the adequacy and appropriateness of the resulting balance. The ALL consists of two portions (1) an allocated amount representative of specifically identified credit exposure and exposures readily predictable by historical or comparative experience; and (2) an unallocated amount representative of inherent loss which is not readily identifiable. Even though the ALL is composed of two components, the entire allowance is available to absorb any credit losses.

We establish the allocated amount separately for two different risk groups (1) unique loans (commercial loans, including those loans considered impaired); and (2) homogenous loans (generally consumer loans). We base the allocation for unique loans primarily on risk rating grades assigned to each of these loans as a result of our loan management and review processes. We then assign each risk-rating grade a loss ratio, which is determined based on the experience of management, discussions with banking regulators and our independent loan review process. We estimate losses on impaired loans based on estimated cash flows discounted at the loan s original effective interest rate or based on the underlying collateral value. We also assign loss ratios to our consumer portfolio. However, we base the loss ratios for these homogenous loans on the category of consumer credit (e.g., automobile, residential mortgage, home equity).

The unallocated amount is particularly subjective and does not lend itself to exact mathematical calculation. We use the unallocated amount to absorb inherent losses which may exist as of the balance sheet date for such matters as changes in the local or national economy, the depth or experience in the lending staff, any concentrations of credit in any particular industry group, and new banking laws or regulations. After we assess applicable factors, we evaluate the aggregate unallocated amount based on our management s experience.

Table of Contents

We then test the resulting ALL balance by comparing the balance in the ALL to historical trends and peer information. Our management then evaluates the result of the procedures performed, including the result of our testing, and concludes on the appropriateness of the balance of the ALL in its entirety. The audit committee of our board of directors reviews the assessment prior to the filing of quarterly and annual financial information.

In assessing the adequacy of the ALL, we also rely on an ongoing independent loan review process. We undertake this process both to ascertain whether there are loans in the portfolio whose credit quality has weakened over time and to assist in our overall evaluation of the risk characteristics of the entire loan portfolio. Our loan review process includes the judgment of management, the input from our independent loan reviewer, who is not an employee of Pinnacle National, and reviews that may have been conducted by bank regulatory agencies as part of their usual examination process.

Deferred Income Tax Assets. During the period from inception through December 31, 2001, we incurred net operating losses and, as a result, recorded deferred tax assets associated with these loss carryforwards. However, prior to the fourth quarter of 2001, we also recorded a full valuation allowance against our net deferred tax assets, and we did not recognize any income tax benefit in our statement of operations. Our judgment was based on our inability to conclude that it was more likely than not that we could be sufficiently profitable in the future to recognize these tax benefits. In the fourth quarter of 2001, this judgment changed, and we determined that based upon our evaluation of our recent operating results and future projections, it was more likely than not that we would realize such assets. We therefore, in that quarter, eliminated the full amount of the valuation allowance and recorded in our statement of operations a deferred tax benefit equal to the deferred tax asset. Unless our judgment changes as to the likelihood of realizing these deferred tax assets, we will continue to recognize such assets in our consolidated financial statements.

Results of Operations Three Months Ended March 31, 2003 and 2002

Our results for the three months ended March 31, 2003, when compared to the three months ended March 31, 2002, were highlighted by the continued growth of our earning assets which resulted in increased net interest income and growth in noninterest income. Net income for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was $373,000 compared to a net income of $45,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2002. The following is a more detailed discussion of results of our operations which focuses primarily on comparing, for each major item in the results, the first quarter of 2003 to the first quarter of 2002.

Net Interest Income. Net interest income represents the amount by which interest earned on various earning assets exceeds interest paid on deposits and other interest bearing liabilities and is the most significant component of our earnings. For the three months ended March 31, 2003, we recorded net interest income of $2,636,000 which resulted in a net interest margin of 3.5% for first quarter of 2003. For the three months ended March 31, 2002, we recorded net interest income of $1,682,000 which resulted in a net interest margin of 4.1% for the first quarter of 2002.

The following table sets forth the amount of our average balances, interest income or interest expense for each category of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities and the average interest rate for total interest-earning assets and total interest-bearing liabilities, net interest spread and net yield on average interest-earning assets for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 (dollars in thousands):

Net interest spread			3.32%			3.96%
Net interest margin			3.46%			4.10%

(1) Yields computed on tax exempt instruments on a tax equivalent basis.

Net interest income for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was $954,000 greater than net interest income for the three months ended March 3, 2002. However, the net interest margin of 3.46% for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was 0.64% (or 64 basis points) less than the net interest margin of 4.10% for the three months ended March 31, 2002. The yield on interest-earning assets decreased by 110 basis points between the two periods, while the rate paid on funding sources only decreased by 46 basis points. Several factors contributed to this including:

a. The federal funds rate for the period from January 1, 2003 through March 31, 2003 was 1.25% compared to 1.75% for the same period in 2002, a decline of 50 basis points. A significant amount of our loans are to prime rate-based borrowers. As a result, as the federal funds rate adjusts then our prime rate adjusts in similar fashion.
b. During 2002 and 2003, we were able to grow our funding base. For asset/liability management purposes, we elected to allocate a proportionately greater amount of such funds to our investment portfolio versus our loan portfolio. Investment securities generally have lower yields than do loans.
c. Although deposit rates did decrease between the two periods, our deposit rates will adjust more slowly than our loan yields due to competitive market pressures.

Rate and Volume Analysis. As noted above, net interest income increased by $954,000 between the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002. The following is an analysis of the changes in our net interest income comparing the changes attributable to rates and those attributable to volumes (dollars in thousands):

Dollar change in interest income and expense	Increase (decrease) due to Volume	Increase (decrease) due to Rate	Total increase (decrease)
	(dollars in thousands)
Interest-earning assets:

	690	(271)	419
Increase (decrease) in net interest income	$ 1,136	$ (182)	$ 954

(1) The above amounts are presented on a fully tax equivalent basis.

(2) Changes in net interest income are attributed to either changes in average balances (volume change) or changes in average rates (rate change) for earning assets and sources of funds on which interest is received or paid. Volume change is calculated as change in volume times the previous rate while rate change is calculated as a change in rate times the previous volume. The change attributed to rates and volumes (change in rate times change in volume) is allocated between volume change and rate change at the ratio of how much each component bears to the absolute value of their total.

Provision for Loan Losses. The provision for loan losses represents a charge to earnings necessary to establish an allowance for loan losses that, in our management s evaluation, should be adequate to provide coverage for the inherent losses on outstanding loans. The provision for loan losses amounted to $288,000 and $209,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Based upon our management s evaluation of the loan portfolio, our management believes the allowance for loan losses to be adequate to absorb losses on existing loans that may become uncollectible. The increase in the provision for loan losses in 2003 when compared to 2002 was due to the relative increase in the rate of loan growth in 2003 when compared to 2002. Based upon our management s assessment of the loan portfolio, we have adjusted our ALL to an amount deemed appropriate to adequately cover inherent risks in the loan portfolio. While our policies and procedures used to estimate the ALL, as well as the resultant provision for loan losses charged to operations, are considered adequate by our management and are reviewed from time to time by Pinnacle National s regulators, they are necessarily approximate and imprecise. There exist factors beyond our control, such as general economic conditions both locally and nationally, which may negatively impact, materially, the adequacy of our ALL and, thus, the resulting provision for loan losses.

Noninterest Income. Noninterest income consists predominately of fees from the sale of investment products. It also includes service charges on deposit accounts and other miscellaneous revenues and fees. Because fees from the sale of investment products, as well as various other components of noninterest income, often reflect market conditions, our noninterest income may tend to have more fluctuations than does net interest income.

Table of Contents

For the three months ended March 31, 2003, our noninterest income was $462,000, which was an increase of $304,000 from the three months ended March 31, 2002. The following is the makeup of our noninterest income for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 (dollars in thousands):

	2003	2002
Service charges on deposit accounts	$ 102	$ 54
Investment sales commissions and fees	156	182
Gain on sale of investment securities	18
Gain on loan participations sold, net	2	20
Other noninterest income:
Mortgage related fees	55
Fees from issuance of letters of credit	48	11
Increase in cash value of insurance	25
Other	56	37
Total noninterest income	$ 462	$ 304

As shown, the largest component of noninterest income is commissions and fees from our investment advisory unit, Pinnacle Asset Management, a division of Pinnacle National. At March 31, 2003, Pinnacle Asset Management was receiving commissions and fees in connection with approximately $177 million in brokerage assets held with Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. compared to $169 million at March 31, 2002. Investment sales commissions and fees decreased in 2003 from the same period in 2002 as trading activity decreased due to the national market conditions.

Noninterest income for the three months ended March 31, 2003 increased over that of the same period in 2002 due to an increase in service charges on deposits which was attributable to increased deposit accounts subject to service charges and mortgage related fees which was attributable to Pinnacle National beginning a mortgage origination unit during the first quarter of 2003. These mortgage fees represent income earned on loans originated by Pinnacle National and subsequently sold at a discount to third-party investors.

During the year ended December 31, 2002, Pinnacle National acquired life insurance policies on five key executives. Pinnacle National is the beneficiary of the death proceeds from these policies. To acquire these policies, Pinnacle National paid a one-time premium of $1.8 million and, in return, Pinnacle National is guaranteed an initial crediting rate for the first year of the contracts which is then reset quarterly thereafter. This crediting rate serves to increase the cash surrender value of the policies over the life of the policies. At March 31, 2003, the aggregate cash value of these policies, which is reflected in other assets on our consolidated balance sheet, was $1,867,000. Pinnacle National has not borrowed any funds against these policies as of December 31, 2002.

Another noninterest income item for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 was related to our sale of certain loan participations to our correspondent banks which were primarily related to new lending transactions in excess of internal loan limits. At March 31, 2003 and pursuant to participation agreements with these correspondents, we had participated approximately $42 million of originated loans to these other banks. These participation agreements have various provisions regarding collateral position, pricing and other matters. Many of these agreements provide that we pay the correspondent less than the loan s contracted interest rate. Pursuant to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities a replacement of FASB Statement No. 125, we recorded $2,000, which represents the net present value of these future net revenues, as a gain on sale of participations in our results of operations during the three months ended March 31, 2003 compared to $20,000 during the three months ended March 31, 2002. We intend to maintain relationships with our correspondents in order to participate future loans to these correspondents in a similar manner. However, the timing of participations may cause the level of gains, if any, to vary significantly.

Noninterest Expense. Noninterest expense consists of salaries and employee benefits, equipment and occupancy expenses, and other operating expenses. For the three months ended March 31, 2003, we incurred approximately $2,242,000 in noninterest expenses compared to approximately $1,705,000 during the three months ended March 31, 2002.

Table of Contents

The following is the makeup of our noninterest expense for the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 (dollars in thousands):

	2003	2002
Compensation and benefits	$1,434	$1,108
Equipment and occupancy	397	341
Marketing and business development	76	46
Postage and supplies	73	55
Other noninterest expense	262	155
Total noninterest expense	$2,242	$1,705

Expenses have increased during the above periods due to personnel additions occurring throughout the periods, incentives, the continued development of our branch network and other expenses which increase in relation to our growth rate. We anticipate increases in our expenses during 2003 for such items as additional personnel, the opening of our Rivergate location in April of 2003, the opening of our Cool Springs location in fall of 2003, the development of new business lines, such as mortgage origination and other expenses which tend to increase in relation to our growth.

Income Taxes. The effective income tax expense rate for the three months ended March 31, 2003 was approximately 34.3% compared to 38.0% for the three months ended March 31, 2002. The reduction in the tax rate is attributable to the impact of nontaxable (for Federal purposes) investments and other assets.

Our management believes earning assets should continue to increase with associated increases in net interest income. The amounts of increased net interest income along with increased noninterest income should exceed the amount of increases in the provision for loan losses and noninterest expense and be sufficient to produce improved results throughout 2003.

Financial Condition March 31, 2003 compared to December 31, 2002

Our consolidated balance sheet at March 31, 2003 reflects significant growth since December 31, 2002. Total assets grew from $305 million at December 31, 2002 to $348 million at March 31, 2003, a 14% increase (56% annualized increase). Total deposits grew $33 million during the first quarter of 2003, also an increase of 14% (56% annualized increase). We invested substantially all of the additional deposits and other fundings in loans, which grew by $19 million during 2003, and securities available-for-sale which increased by $21 million in the same period.

Loans. The composition of loans at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 and the percentage of each classification to total loans are summarized as follows (dollars in thousands):

	March 31, 2003		December 31, 2002
	Amount	Percentage	Amount	Percentage
Commercial real estate mortgage	$ 64,124	28.0%	$ 58,965	28.1%

The following table classifies our fixed and variable rate loans at March 31, 2003 according to contractual maturities of (1) one year or less, (2) after one year through five years, and (3) after five years. The table also classifies our variable rate loans pursuant to the contractual repricing dates of the underlying loans (dollars in thousands):

	Based on Contractual Maturities
	Fixed Rates	Variable Rates	Total	Variable Rate Loan Repricing Dates
Due within one year	$ 7,643	$ 66,031	$ 73,674	$129,354
Due in one year through five years	50,906	35,921	86,827	23,523
Due after five years	13,356	54,985	68,341	4,060
	$71,905	$156,937	$228,842	$156,937

The above information does not consider the impact of scheduled principal payments.

Non-Performing Assets. The specific economic and credit risks associated with our loan portfolio, include, but are not limited to, a general downturn in the economy which could affect employment rates in our market area, general real estate market deterioration, interest rate fluctuations, deteriorated or non-existent collateral, title defects, inaccurate appraisals, financial deterioration of borrowers, fraud, and any violation of banking laws and regulations.

We attempt to reduce these economic and credit risks by adherence to loan to value guidelines for collateralized loans, by investigating the creditworthiness of the borrower and by monitoring the borrower s financial position. Also, we establish and periodically review our lending policies and procedures. Banking regulations limit our exposure by prohibiting loan relationships that exceed 15% of Pinnacle National s statutory capital in the case of loans that are not fully secured by readily marketable or other permissible types of collateral.

Pinnacle National discontinues the accrual of interest income when (1) there is a significant deterioration in the financial condition of the borrower and full repayment of principal and interest is not expected or (2) the principal or interest is more than 90 days past due, unless the loan is both well-secured and in the process of collection. At March 31, 2003, we had $1,095,000 in loans on nonaccrual compared to $1,845,000 at December 31, 2002. One loan relationship accounts for most of this amount. This relationship involves various commercial loans aggregating $1,025,000 to a borrower who during the fourth quarter of 2002 filed for reorganization pursuant to the bankruptcy laws of the United States. Management is actively pursing remedies to eliminate and/or otherwise minimize any additional negative financial impact that might occur from this and any other nonaccrual loans.

During the three months ended March 31, 2003, one relationship for $750,000 which had been on nonaccrual at December 31, 2002 was paid pursuant to the sale of the underlying collateral to another borrower. Pursuant to this transaction, we recorded an $88,000 charge-off to the ALL during the three months ended March 31, 2003.

There were approximately $44,000 in other loans at March 31, 2003 which were 90 days past due and still accruing interest. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, no loans were deemed to be a restructured loan. Additionally, we had no repossessed real estate properties classified as Other Real Estate Owned at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002. The following table is a summary of our nonperforming assets at the indicated dates (dollars in thousands):

	March 31, 2003	December 31, 2002
Nonaccrual loans (1)	$ 1,095	$ 1,845
Restructured loans
Other real estate owned
Total nonperforming assets	1,095	1,845
Accruing loans past due 90 days or more	44	22
Total nonperforming assets and accruing loans past due 90 days or more	$ 1,139	$ 1,867
Total loans outstanding	$228,842	$209,743
Ratio of total nonperforming assets to total loans outstanding at end of period	0.48%	0.88%
Ratio of total nonperforming assets to allowance for loan losses at end of period	38.3%	68.9%

(1) Interest income that would have been recorded in the first quarter of 2003 related to nonaccrual loans was $29,000 compared to $43,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002, none of which is included in interest income or net income for the applicable periods.

Potential problem assets, which are not included in nonperforming assets, amounted to $73,000 or 0.03% of total loans at March 31, 2003 compared to $77,000 or 0.04% at December 31, 2002. Potential problem assets represent those assets where information about possible credit problems of borrowers has caused management to have serious doubts about the borrower s ability to comply with present repayment terms. This definition is believed to be substantially consistent with the standards established by Pinnacle National s primary regulator for loans classified as substandard.

Allowance for Loan Losses (ALL). We maintain the ALL at a level that our management deems appropriate to adequately cover the inherent risks in the loan portfolio. As of March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, our allowance for loan losses was $2,860,000 and $2,677,000, respectively. Our management deemed these amounts to be adequate. The judgments and estimates associated with our ALL determination are described under Critical Accounting Policies above.

Approximately 78% of our loan portfolio at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 consisted of commercial loans. Using standard industry codes, we periodically analyze our loan position with respect to our borrowers industries to determine if a concentration of credit risk exists to any one or more industries. We do have a meaningful credit exposure of loans outstanding plus unfunded lines of credit to borrowers in the trucking industry and to operators of nonresidential buildings at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002. Credit exposure to the trucking industry approximated $29.5 million at March 31, 2003 and $27.1 million at December 31, 2002. The $29.5 million concentration to the trucking industry at March 31, 2003 included approximately 40 relationships, while the $27.1 million at December 31, 2002 included 43 relationships. Credit exposure to operators of nonresidential buildings approximated $7.8 million at March 31, 2003 and $9.6 million at December 31, 2002. The $7.8 million concentration to operators of nonresidential buildings at March 31, 2003 included approximately 13 relationships, while the $9.6 million at December 31, 2002 included 13 relationships. We evaluate our exposure level to these industry groups periodically in order to determine if additional allowance allocations are warranted. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, we determined that we did not have any excessive exposure to any single industry which would warrant additional allowance allocations.

The following table sets forth, based on management s best estimate, the allocation of the ALL to types of loans as well as the unallocated portion as of March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 (dollars in thousands):

	March 31, 2003		December 31, 2002
	Amount	Percentage of ALL	Amount	Percentage of ALL
Commercial	$1,784	62.4%	$1,744	65.1%
Consumer	436	15.2	398	14.9
Unallocated	640	22.4	535	20.0
	$2,860	100.0%	$2,677	100.0%

During the first quarter of 2003, we charged-off $88,000 related to a particular loan, which prior to the charge-off date, had been on nonaccrual status. We also charged-off another $17,000 related to a consumer loan. As a relatively new institution, we do not have loss experience comparable to more mature financial institutions; however, as our loan portfolio matures, we will have additional charge-offs and we will consider the amount and history of our charge-offs in determining the adequacy of our allowance. The following is a summary of changes in the allowance for loan losses for the three months ended March 31, 2003, for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the ratio of the allowance for loan losses to total loans as of the end of each period:

	2003	2002
Balance at beginning of period	$2,677	$1,832
Provision for loan losses	288	938
Charged-off loans	(105)	(93)
Recovery of previously charged-off loans
Balance at end of period	$2,860	$2,677
Ratio of the allowance for loan losses to total loans at the end of the period	1.25%	1.28%
Ratio of net charge-offs (annualized) to average loans outstanding for the period	0.19%	0.05%

Investments. Our investment portfolio, consisting primarily of Federal agency bonds and mortgage-backed securities, amounted to $92.5 million and $74.0 million at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, respectively.

Table of Contents

The following table summarizes the amortized cost and fair value of our securities at those dates, all of which we classify as available-for-sale (dollars in thousands):

	Amortized Cost	Gross Unrealized Gains	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value
Securities available-for-sale March 31, 2003:
U.S. government and agency securities	$19,585	$ 410	$ (39)	$19,956
Mortgage-backed securities	67,898	502	(308)	68,092

State and municipal securities	3,580	13	(12)	3,581
	$72,734	$1,284	$ (38)	$73,980

During the first quarter of 2003, we sold $12.4 million of available-for-sale securities at a net gain of $18,000. At March 31, 2003, approximately $50.7 million of our available-for-sale portfolio was pledged to secure public fund and other deposits and securities sold under agreements to repurchase.

The following table shows the carrying value of investment securities according to contractual maturity classifications of (1) one year or less, (2) after one year through five years, (3) after five years through ten years, and (4) after ten years. Actual maturities may differ from contractual maturities of mortgage-backed securities because the mortgages underlying the securities may be called or prepaid with or without penalty. Therefore, these securities are not included in the maturity categories noted below as of March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 (dollars in thousands).

We computed yields using coupon interest, adding discount accretion or subtracting premium amortization, as appropriate, on a ratable basis over the life of each security. We computed the weighted average yield for each maturity range using the acquisition price of each security in that range.

Deposits and Other Borrowings. We had approximately $266.7 million of deposits at March 31, 2003 compared to $234.0 million at December 31, 2002. Our deposits consist of noninterest and interest-bearing demand accounts, savings, money market and time deposits. Additionally, we entered into agreements with certain customers to sell certain of our securities under agreements to repurchase the security the following day. These agreements (which provide customers with short-term returns for their excess funds) amounted to $15.8 million at March 31, 2003 and $15.1 million at December 31, 2002. Additionally, at March 31, 2003, we had borrowed $32.5 million in advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati compared to $21.5 million at December 31, 2002.

Table of Contents

Generally, banks classify their funding base as either core funding or non-core funding based on regulatory definitions that have existed for some period of time. Core funding consists of all deposits other than time deposits issued in denominations of $100,000 or greater while all other funding is deemed to be non-core. The following table represents the balances of our deposits and other fundings and the percentage of each type to the total at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 (dollars in thousands):

The amounts of time deposits issued in amounts of $100,000 or more as of March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 amounted to $96.1 million and $87.4 million, respectively. The following table shows our time deposits over $100,000 by category at March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, based on time remaining until maturity of (1) three months or less, (2) over three but less than six months, (3) over six but less than twelve months and (4) over twelve months (dollars in thousands):

	2003	2002
Three months or less	$27,061	$20,470
Over three but less than six months	23,166	22,288
Over six but less than twelve months	19,346	25,386
Over twelve months	26,566	19,295
	$96,139	$87,439

Capital Resources. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, our stockholders equity amounted to $32.4 million. The increase in stockholders equity attributable to net income for the three months ended March 31, 2003 of $373,000 was offset by the net comprehensive loss of $373,000 attributable to the devaluation of our available-for-sale securities portfolio.

Generally, banking laws and regulations require banks and bank holding companies to maintain certain minimum capital ratios in order to engage in certain activities or be eligible for certain types of regulatory relief. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, our capital ratios, including Pinnacle National s capital ratios, met regulatory minimum capital requirements. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, Pinnacle National was categorized as well capitalized . To be categorized as well capitalized , Pinnacle National must maintain minimum Total risk-based,

Tier I risk-based, and Tier I leverage ratios as set forth in the following table. Additionally, we and Pinnacle National must maintain certain minimum capital ratios for regulatory purposes.

(*) Average assets for the above calculations were fourth quarter amounts.

Also, in connection with approving Pinnacle National s deposit insurance application, the FDIC imposed an additional capital requirement which remains in effect until October 27, 2003. Pursuant to this requirement, Pinnacle National must maintain a Tier I capital to average assets ratio of at least 8%. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, as noted above, Pinnacle National s Tier 1 capital to average assets ratio was 8.7% and 9.8%, respectively.

In order for Pinnacle National to achieve anticipated asset growth while continuing to meet regulatory requirements for minimum capital and for well capitalized status, we would plan to inject additional capital into Pinnacle National. In order to inject the required capital into Pinnacle National, Pinnacle Financial would first utilize some or all of its available unrestricted cash of approximately $3.5 million to increase Pinnacle National s capital position. We currently anticipate during the latter half of 2003 raising additional capital. This would be accomplished through either Pinnacle Financial incurring indebtedness and contributing a corresponding amount of capital to Pinnacle National, which would require regulatory approval, or a public or private equity offering by Pinnacle Financial. Should we issue additional equity securities, such securities could dilute the interests of our current shareholders.

Dividends. Pinnacle National is subject to restrictions on the payment of dividends to Pinnacle Financial under federal banking laws and the regulations of the OCC. Currently, Pinnacle National cannot pay Pinnacle Financial any dividends without prior approval of the OCC.

We, in turn, are also subject to limits on payment of dividends to our shareholders by the rules, regulations and policies of federal banking authorities. We have not paid any dividends to date, nor do we anticipate paying dividends to our shareholders for the foreseeable future. In order to pay such dividends, we will need to receive dividends from Pinnacle National or have other sources of funds. As a national bank, Pinnacle National will not be able to pay dividends to us until it has a positive retained earnings account. At March 31, 2003, Pinnacle National s accumulated deficit was approximately $2.3 million. Future dividend policy will depend on Pinnacle National s earnings, capital position, financial condition and other factors.

Market and Liquidity Risk Management

Our objective is to manage assets and liabilities to provide a satisfactory, consistent level of profitability within the framework of established liquidity, loan, investment, borrowing, and capital policies. Our Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) is charged with the responsibility of monitoring these policies, which are designed to ensure acceptable composition of asset/liability mix. Two critical areas of focus for ALCO are interest rate sensitivity and liquidity risk management.

Interest Rate Sensitivity. In the normal course of business, we are exposed to market risk arising from fluctuations in interest rates. ALCO measures and evaluates the interest rate risk so that we can meet customer demands for various types of loans and deposits. ALCO determines the most appropriate amounts of on-balance sheet and off-balance sheet items. Measurements which we use to help us manage interest rate sensitivity include an earnings simulation model, an economic value of equity model, and gap analysis computations. These measurements are used in conjunction with competitive pricing analysis.

Earnings simulation model. We believe that interest rate risk is best measured by our earnings simulation modeling. Forecasted levels of earning assets, interest-bearing liabilities, and off-balance sheet financial instruments are combined with ALCO forecasts of interest rates for the next 12 months and are combined with other factors in order to produce various earnings simulations. To limit interest rate risk, we have guidelines for our earnings at risk which seek to limit the variance of net income to less than 10 percent for a 200 basis point change up or down in rates from management s most likely interest rate forecast over the next twelve months. We have operated within this guideline since inception.

Economic value of equity. Our economic value of equity model measures the extent that estimated economic values of our assets, liabilities and off-balance sheet items will change as a result of interest rate changes. Economic values are determined by discounting expected cash flows from assets, liabilities and off-balance sheet items, which establishes a base case economic value of equity. To help limit interest rate risk, we have a guideline stating that for an instantaneous 200 basis point change in interest rates up or down, the economic value of equity will not change by more than 20 percent from the base case. We have operated within this guideline since inception.

Gap analysis. An asset or liability is considered to be interest rate-sensitive if it will reprice or mature within the time period analyzed; for example, within three months or one year. The interest rate-sensitivity gap is the difference between the interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities scheduled to mature or reprice within such time period. A gap is considered positive when the amount of interest rate-sensitive assets exceeds the amount of interest rate-sensitive liabilities. A gap is considered negative when the amount of interest rate-sensitive liabilities exceeds the interest rate-sensitive assets. During a period of rising interest rates, a negative gap would tend to adversely affect net interest income, while a positive gap would tend to result in an increase in net interest income. Conversely, during a period of falling interest rates, a negative gap would tend to result in an increase in net interest income, while a positive gap would tend to adversely affect net interest income. If our assets and liabilities were equally flexible and moved concurrently, the impact of any increase or decrease in interest rates on net interest income would be minimal.

At March 31, 2003, our cumulative twelve-month interest rate-sensitivity gap ratio of earning assets to interest bearing liabilities was 88% (compared to 82% at December 31, 2002), which was within our targeted ratio of 75% to 125% in this time horizon. Since the ratio is less than 100%, the ratio indicates that our interest-bearing liabilities will reprice during this period at a rate faster than our interest-earning assets absent the factors mentioned previously. There is a general view in credit markets that interest rates will eventually rise over the next 12 months which, given our gap position, could have a negative impact on our net interest income. However, deposit pricing will generally lag both in degree and timing with any upward interest rate adjustments. Thus, our management believes we are in an acceptable position to manage our net interest margins through an upward rate environment.

Each of the above analysis may not, on their own, be an accurate indicator of how our net interest income will be affected by changes in interest rates. Income associated with interest-earning assets and costs associated with interest-bearing liabilities may not be affected uniformly by changes in interest rates. In addition, the magnitude and duration of changes in interest rates may have a significant impact on net interest income. For example, although certain assets and liabilities may have similar maturities or periods of repricing, they may react in different degrees to changes in market interest rates. Interest rates on certain types of assets and liabilities fluctuate in advance of changes in general market rates, while interest rates on other types may lag behind changes in general market rates. In addition, certain assets, such as adjustable rate mortgage loans, have features (generally referred to as interest rate caps and floors) which limit changes in interest rates. Prepayment and early withdrawal levels also could deviate significantly from those assumed in calculating the maturity of certain instruments. The ability of many borrowers to service their debts also may decrease during periods of rising interest rates. ALCO reviews each of the above interest rate sensitivity analyses along with several different interest rate scenarios as part of its responsibility to provide a satisfactory, consistent level of profitability within the framework of established liquidity, loan, investment, borrowing, and capital policies.

We may also use derivative financial instruments to improve the balance between interest-sensitive assets and interest-sensitive liabilities and as one tool to manage our interest rate sensitivity while continuing to meet the credit and deposit needs of our customers. At March 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, we had not entered into any derivative contracts to assist managing our interest rate sensitivity.

Liquidity Risk Management. The purpose of liquidity risk management is to ensure that there are sufficient cash flows to satisfy loan demand, deposit withdrawals, and our other needs. Traditional sources of liquidity for a bank include asset maturities and growth in core deposits. A bank may achieve its desired liquidity objectives from the management of its assets and liabilities and by internally generated funding through its operations. Funds invested in marketable instruments that can be readily sold and the continuous maturing of other earning assets are sources of liquidity from an asset perspective. The liability base provides sources of liquidity through attraction of increased deposits and borrowing funds from various other institutions.

Changes in interest rates also affect our liquidity position. We currently price deposits in response to market rates and our management intends to continue this policy. If deposits are not priced in response to market rates, a loss of deposits could occur which would negatively affect our liquidity position.

Scheduled loan payments are a relatively stable source of funds, but loan payoffs and deposit flows fluctuate significantly, being influenced by interest rates, general economic conditions and competition. Additionally, debt security investments are subject to prepayment and call provisions that could accelerate their payoff prior to stated maturity. We attempt to price our deposit products to meet our asset/liability objectives consistent with local market conditions. Our ALCO is responsible for monitoring our ongoing liquidity needs. Our regulators also monitor our liquidity and capital resources on a periodic basis.

Table of Contents

At March 31, 2003, we had approximately $51.2 million of liquid assets compared to $38.4 million at December 31, 2002. For purposes of liquidity management, liquid assets are cash and cash equivalents and the anticipated cash flows from available-for-sale securities for the next year. This amount represented 15.5% of our total earning assets at March 31, 2003 compared to 13.5% at December 31, 2002.

At March 31, 2003, we had unfunded loan commitments outstanding of $71.4 million and outstanding standby letters of credit of $17.5 million. Because these commitments generally have fixed expiration dates and many will expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment level does not necessarily represent future cash requirements. If needed to fund these outstanding commitments, Pinnacle National has the ability to liquidate Federal funds sold or securities available-for-sale or on a short-term basis to borrow and purchase Federal funds from other financial institutions. To date, Pinnacle National has been able to fund its ongoing liquidity needs through attraction of additional deposits or liquidation of Federal funds sold. At March 31, 2003, Pinnacle National had accommodations with upstream correspondent banks for unsecured short-term advances. These accommodations have various covenants related to their term and availability, and in most cases must be repaid within less than a month. The following table presents additional information about our unfunded commitments as of March 31, 2003, which by their terms have contractual maturity dates subsequent to March 31, 2003 (dollars in thousands):

	Next 12 Months	13-36 Months	37-60 Months	More than 60 Months	Totals
Unfunded commitments:
Letters of credit	$14,741	$2,437	$ 302	$	$17,480
Lines of credit	48,241	5,113	2,200	15,819	71,373
Totals	$62,982	$7,550	$2,502	$15,819	$88,853

In addition, Pinnacle National is a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati. As a result, Pinnacle National receives advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati, pursuant to the terms of various borrowing agreements, which assist it in the funding of its home mortgage and commercial real estate loan portfolios. Pinnacle National has pledged under the borrowing agreements with the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati certain qualifying residential mortgage loans and, pursuant to a blanket lien, all qualifying commercial mortgage loans as collateral. At March 31, 2003, Pinnacle National had received advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati totaling $32.5 million at the following rates and maturities (dollars in thousands):

	Dollar Amount	Interest Rate
By Maturity Date:
April 17, 2003	$ 2,000	3.04%
April 25, 2003	1,500	2.84

	$32,500
Weighted average interest rate		2.75%

At March 31, 2003, brokered certificates of deposit approximated $44.2 million which represented 14.0% of total fundings compared to $42.7 and 15.8% at December 31, 2002. We issue these brokered certificates through several different brokerage houses based on competitive bid. Typically, these funds are for varying maturities from six months to two years and are issued at rates which are competitive to rates we would be required to pay to attract similar deposits from the local market as well as rates for Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati advances of similar maturities. We consider these deposits to be a ready source of liquidity under current market conditions.

At March 31, 2003, we had no significant commitments for capital expenditures. However, we are in the process of developing our branch network in Davidson and surrounding counties. As a result, we anticipate that we will enter into contracts to buy property or construct branch facilities and/or lease agreements to lease property and/or rent currently constructed facilities. We anticipate opening a branch facility in the Cool Springs area of Williamson County later this year. We currently anticipate the land and facility to cost approximately $2,000,000 to construct and equip.

The following table presents additional information about our contractual obligations as of March 31, 2003, which by their terms have contractual maturity and termination dates subsequent to March 31, 2003 (dollars in thousands):

	Next 12 Months	13-36 Months	37-60 Months	More than 60 Months	Totals
Contractual obligations:
Certificates of deposit	$ 84,829	$ 41,298	$ 124	$	$ 126,251
Securities sold under agreements to repurchase	15,846				15,846
Federal Home Loan Bank advances	17,500	13,000	2,000		32,500
Minimum operating lease commitments	401	832	877	1,799	3,909
Totals	$ 118,576	$ 55,130	$ 3,001	$ 1,799	$ 178,506

Our management believes that we have adequate liquidity to meet all known contractual obligations and unfunded commitments, including loan commitments and reasonable borrower, depositor, and creditor requirements over the next twelve months.

Impact of Inflation

The consolidated financial statements and related consolidated financial data presented herein have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and practices within the banking industry which require the measurement of financial position and operating results in terms of historical dollars without considering the changes in the relative purchasing power of money over time due to inflation. Unlike most industrial companies, virtually all the assets and liabilities of a financial institution are monetary in nature. As a result, interest rates have a more significant impact on a financial institution s performance than the effects of general levels of inflation.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

On July 30, 2002, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards Statement No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities (SFAS No. 146). The standard replaces EITF Issue No. 94-3, Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring) and requires companies to recognize costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. Examples of costs covered by the standard include lease termination costs and certain employee severance costs that are associated with a restructuring, discontinued operation, plant closing, or other exit or disposal activity. SFAS 146 is effective prospectively to exit or disposal activities initiated after December 31, 2002. Pinnacle Financial adopted this new standard on January 1, 2003. The adoption of this new standard had no effect on the financial position or results of operations of Pinnacle Financial as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2003.

Table of Contents

In November 2002, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 45, Guarantor s Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness to Others, an interpretation of FASB Statements No. 5, 57, and 107 and a rescission of FASB Interpretation No. 34 . This Interpretation elaborates on the disclosures to be made by a guarantor in its interim and annual financial statements about its obligations under guarantees issued. The Interpretation also clarifies that a guarantor is required to recognize, at inception of a guarantee, a liability for the fair value of the obligation undertaken. The initial recognition and measurement provisions of the Interpretation are applicable to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002 and are not expected to have a material effect on the Company s financial statements. The disclosure requirements are effective for financial statements of interim and annual periods ending after December 15, 2002. Pinnacle Financial adopted this new standard on January 1, 2003. The adoption of this new standard had no effect on the financial position or results of operations of Pinnacle Financial as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2003.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures

Within 90 days before the filing date of this quarterly report, Pinnacle Financial carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our President and Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of Pinnacle Financial s disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Rules 13a-14(c) and 15d-14(c)). Based upon that evaluation, our President and Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were adequate to ensure that material information relating to us and our consolidated subsidiaries would be made known to them by others within Pinnacle Financial and its consolidated subsidiaries. There have been no significant changes in Pinnacle Financial s internal controls or other factors that could significantly affect internal controls and procedures subsequent to the date of such evaluation.
