PROXY STATEMENT

We furnish this proxy statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at our 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, or any postponement or adjournment of the meeting. We will hold the annual meeting at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, May 11, 2006 on the 7th Floor of the AutoNation Tower, 110 S.E. 6th Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301.

We mailed this proxy statement, the notice of annual meeting, the proxy card and our annual report to our stockholders on or about March 31, 2006.

Record Date

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 22, 2006 may vote at the annual meeting.

Shares Outstanding and Voting Rights

The only voting stock of our company currently outstanding is our common stock. As of the close of business on March 22, 2006, there were 137,208,385 shares of common stock outstanding. Each share of common stock issued and outstanding is entitled to one vote on each of the matters properly presented at the annual meeting.

Proxy Procedure

Proxies properly executed and returned in a timely manner will be voted at the annual meeting according to the voting instructions noted on the proxies. Proxies without voting instructions will be voted to elect the individuals nominated as directors in this proxy statement, for our company's proposal set forth in the notice of annual meeting, and in the best judgment of the persons acting under the proxies on other matters presented for a vote. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power, at any time before it is voted, to revoke it in person at the annual meeting, by written notice to the secretary of our company at the address above, or by delivery to the secretary of our company of a later-dated proxy.

The inspector of elections appointed for the meeting will tabulate the votes cast by proxy or in person at the annual meeting. The inspector will count these votes in determining whether or not a quorum is present. A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the annual meeting. Abstentions and broker shares, which are shares held in street name, that are voted as to any matter at the meeting will be included in determining the number of shares present or represented at the annual meeting. Broker shares that are not voted on any matter at the annual meeting will not be included in determining the number of shares present or represented at the annual meeting.

Our 401(k) Plan provides that the trustee of the 401(k) Plan shall vote the number of shares of our common stock allocated to a participant's account as instructed by the participant. Courts have held that trustees are required to follow participants' instructions unless they determine that doing so would breach their fiduciary responsibilities under the Employee Retirement Income Security of 1974, as amended. The trustee of the 401(k) Plan will vote your shares in accordance with your instructions if you send in a completed proxy card. If you do not provide a completed proxy card, the trustee of the 401(k) Plan will vote the shares in your account in the same proportion that it votes shares for which it received valid and timely proxy cards.

Voting Requirements

Each director will be elected by the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast by the shares of common stock present at the annual meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our common stock present at the annual meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote, is required for each other item and to approve any other matter duly brought to a vote at the annual meeting.

Broker shares that are not voted on a particular proposal at the annual meeting will have no effect on that matter. Abstentions from voting on a particular proposal will have the effect of votes against the particular proposal.

Costs of Solicitation

Our board of directors will solicit proxies by mail. Our directors, officers and a small number of other employees of our company may also solicit proxies personally or by mail, telephone, or otherwise. We will not compensate these persons for their solicitation. We will request brokerage firms, banks, fiduciaries, voting trustees or other nominees to forward the soliciting material to each beneficial owner of stock held of record by them. We have hired The Altman Group, Inc. to coordinate the solicitation of proxies by and through these holders for a fee of approximately $5,000 plus expenses. We will bear the entire cost of the solicitation.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

The board of directors develops our business strategy, establishes our overall policies and standards, and reviews the performance of management in executing our business strategy and implementing our policies and standards. We keep directors informed of our operations at meetings and through reports and analyses presented to the board of directors and committees of the board. Significant communications between the directors and management also occur apart from meetings of the board of directors and committees of the board.

Corporate Governance

The board of directors held eight meetings and took four actions by unanimous written consent during 2005. Each incumbent director attended at least 80% of the total number of meetings of the board of directors and the total number of meetings held by all committees of the board on which he served, other than Mr. Hudson who, due to personal circumstances, participated in 63% of the scheduled meetings of the board of directors. Three directors attended our 2005 annual meeting of stockholders.

The board of directors has determined that our five non-management directors, Messrs. Croghan, Nutter, Rodriguez, Sorensen and Wickham, have met the standards of independence as set forth in our Corporate Governance Guidelines, which are consistent with the listing standards established by the New York Stock Exchange. A copy of our Corporate Governance Guidelines is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and a copy may be obtained by written request to the corporate Secretary at Republic Services, Inc. 110 S.E. 6th Street Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301.

The non-management directors meet at least once per year in an executive session. The non-management directors elect a presiding director for each executive session at which the non-management directors meet. In 2005, our non-management directors met three times in executive session.

Our directors and executive officers attend ISS-accredited seminars and continuing education programs relating to corporate governance matters.

Presiding Director

The board of directors has created the position of Presiding Director to serve as the lead non-management director of the board of directors. The Presiding Director position shall at all times be held by an independent director, as that term is defined from time to time by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and as determined by the board of directors in accordance with its Corporate Governance Guidelines.

The Presiding Director will have, in addition to the powers and authorities of a member of our board of directors, the power and authority to (a) preside at all meetings of non-management directors when they meet in executive session without the participation of management, (b) set agendas, priorities and procedures for meetings of non-management directors when they meet in executive session without the participation of management, (c) coordinate with non-management directors the review, revision, addition or deletion of proposed agenda items for any meeting of the board of directors, (d) request access to any employee of the company at any time, and (e) retain independent outside financial, legal or other advisors on behalf of any committee or subcommittee of the board of directors.

The nominating and corporate governance committee shall recommend a member of the board of directors to serve as Presiding Director. Upon approval by the board of directors, such person shall serve as Presiding Director for a period of not more than two (2) consecutive years. The current Presiding Director of the company is Mr. Sorensen, who was approved by the board of directors effective as of October 1, 2004.

Board Committees and Meetings

The board of directors has established four committees: the executive committee, the audit committee, the compensation committee and the nominating and corporate governance committee, however, on April 28, 2005, following a review of the authority and roles of the committees of the board of directors, the board of directors abolished the executive committee. Committee member appointments are re-evaluated annually and approved by the board of directors at its next regularly scheduled meeting that follows the annual meeting of stockholders. Information regarding each of the current committees is as follows:

Audit Committee

The audit committee consists of Messrs. Rodriguez (Chairman), Croghan, Nutter, Sorensen and Wickham. The five members of the audit committee meet the independence, education and experience requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith, and the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. Our board has also determined that Messrs. Croghan and Rodriguez each qualify as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act of 1934, as amended.

The audit committee assists the board of directors in monitoring (a) the integrity of our financial statements, (b) our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, and (c) the independence and performance of our internal and external auditors. Furthermore, the audit committee has the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate and, where appropriate, terminate and replace the independent auditor. The audit committee operates under a written charter adopted by the board of directors. This charter was amended and restated by our board of directors during 2002, 2003 and again in 2004. A copy of our current audit committee charter is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and a copy may be obtained by written request to the corporate Secretary at Republic Services, Inc. 110 S.E. 6th Street Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301. The audit committee held five meetings, took six actions by unanimous written consent during 2005 and met four times in executive session.

Compensation Committee

The compensation committee consists of Messrs. Nutter (Chairman), Croghan, Rodriguez, Sorensen and Wickham. The five members of the compensation committee are independent as that term is defined under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith, and in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The compensation committee reviews our company's compensation philosophy and programs, exercises authority with respect to the payment of salaries and incentive compensation to directors who are not members of the compensation committee and to executive officers, and administers our company's stock incentive plan. The compensation committee operates under a written charter adopted by the board of directors. This charter was amended and restated by our board of directors during 2005. A copy of our current compensation committee charter is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and a copy may be obtained by written request to the corporate Secretary at Republic Services, Inc. 110 S.E. 6th Street Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301. The compensation committee held five meetings, took no actions by unanimous written consent during 2005 and met one time in executive session.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The nominating and corporate governance committee was formed in late 2002, although previously our audit committee also had responsibility as our nominating committee. The nominating and corporate governance committee consists of Messrs. Croghan (Chairman), Nutter, Rodriguez, Sorensen and Wickham. The five members of the nominating and corporate governance committee are independent as that term is defined under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations promulgated in accordance therewith, and in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The nominating and corporate governance committee is responsible for soliciting recommendations for candidates for the board of directors, developing and reviewing background information for such candidates, and making recommendations to the board of directors with respect to candidates for directors proposed by shareholders. In evaluating candidates for potential director nomination, the nominating and corporate governance committee will consider, among other things, candidates that are independent, if required, who possess personal and professional integrity, have good business judgment, and have relevant business and industry experience, education and skills, and who would be effective as a director in conjunction with the full board in collectively serving the long-term interests of our stockholders in light of the needs and challenges facing the board of directors at the time. All candidates will be reviewed in the same manner, regardless of the source of recommendation. Messrs. O'Connor and Hudson are nominated for election to our board of directors at each annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to the terms of their employment agreements with us. See Executive Compensation-Employment Agreements, elsewhere in this proxy statement.

In addition to the foregoing duties, the nominating and corporate governance committee is also responsible for developing and recommending to the board of directors a set of Corporate Governance Guidelines and a Code of Ethics. Our Code of Ethics applies to our employees and to the board of directors. A copy of our Code of Ethics is available to view at our website, www.republicservices.com, and a copy may be obtained by written request to the corporate Secretary at Republic Services, Inc. 110 S.E. 6th Street Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301. The nominating and corporate governance committee will consider nominations from stockholders that are entitled to vote for the election of directors. The nominating and corporate governance committee held four meetings and took no actions by unanimous written consent during 2005.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following statement made by the compensation committee of the board of directors of Republic Services, Inc. shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under either of these acts.

Executive Compensation Policies

The compensation committee of the board of directors is responsible for reviewing and approving executive compensation, including base salaries, awards of stock options and restricted stock, and annual and long-term awards under the company's Executive Incentive Plan. The compensation committee currently consists of Mr. Nutter, the Chairman of the committee, and Messrs. Croghan, Rodriguez, Sorensen and Wickham, each of whom is a non-employee director of our company.

Our executive compensation packages are designed to attract, motivate and retain executive talent. In determining the compensation of our executive officers, the committee takes into account factors which it considers relevant. These factors include individual management performance during the year, consideration of industry trends and business conditions in general, as well as market compensation for executives of comparable background and experience.

During 2000, the committee engaged a compensation consulting firm to conduct a comprehensive review of executive compensation. This review was undertaken to determine whether the compensation packages afforded to our executive officers were competitive and/or complete when compared with similarly situated companies. During both 2002 and 2003, the committee engaged another compensation consulting firm to conduct further reviews of executive compensation. In both of these further reviews, the consulting firm was asked to review the current compensation packages for the company's top 25 officers and compare them with packages offered to officers at a targeted universe of peer group companies as established during the 2000 review. The analysis and development of findings entailed regular status review meetings with the committee. Ultimately, the consulting firm provided the committee with its findings and analysis, which were taken into account in determining the committee's policies and bases for compensating the company's executive officers and its chief executive officer.

The general structure of each executive compensation package remains primarily weighted toward incentive forms of compensation so that an executive officer's interests are aligned with the interests of the company's stockholders. The compensation packages have been designed based on recommendations received from the compensation consulting firm and are generally designed as follows:

1. Salary. The company's executive officers did not receive annual base salary increases for 2005. In lieu of an increase of their annual base salary, the company's executive officers received a grant of restricted stock in January 2005 that fully vested on January 1, 2006.

2. Restricted Stock. In 2005, we granted 10,000 shares of restricted stock to the company's executive officers under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan in lieu of increases to their annual base salary. We granted these shares of restricted stock at $30.88 per share, based on the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant. These shares of restricted stock vested on January 1, 2006. Separately during 2005, we granted an additional 72,000 shares of restricted stock to the company's executive officers under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. We granted these shares of restricted stock at $30.88 per share, based on the closing price of our common stock on the date of grant. The shares of restricted stock vest at the rate of 25% per year in each of the four years following the date of grant, subject to vesting acceleration based on the company's achievement of annual performance goals that are established in connection with annual awards under our Executive Incentive Plan. As a result of the company's performance in 2005, the vesting schedule acceleration resulted in one-half of the 72,000 shares of restricted stock granted in 2005 vesting on the first anniversary of the date of grant. Furthermore, as a result of the company's performance in 2004 and 2005, the vesting schedule acceleration resulted in one-half of the 72,000 shares of restricted stock granted in 2004 vesting on the first anniversary of the date of grant and the remaining one-half of the 72,000 shares of restricted stock vesting on the second anniversary of the date of grant. The company anticipates that it will continue to make annual restricted stock grants to its executive officers in lieu of stock options.

3. Executive Incentive Plan. The Executive Incentive Plan authorizes the granting of annual awards and long-term awards to executive officers selected from time to time by the compensation committee to participate in the plan. Annual awards are designed to recognize the annual achievement by a participant of short-term goals and objectives of the company. Long-term awards are designed to recognize the impact of the participant upon the achievement by the company of longer term success in enhancing stockholder values.

Annual Awards. For 2005, our executive officers were eligible to receive annual awards under our Executive Incentive Plan based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) earnings per share and (b) free cash flow. Free cash flow is defined as cash provided by operating activities less purchases of property and equipment, plus proceeds from the sale of property and equipment. During 2005, we exceeded our predetermined level of earnings per share and achieved our predetermined level of free cash flow and, accordingly, our executive officers were granted bonuses of 200% of such pre-determined levels.

Long-Term Awards. Long-term awards under the Executive Incentive Plan are based on three-year rolling performance periods of three calendar years each. A new performance period begins on January 1 of each year, and payouts with respect to each performance period are scheduled following the end of each applicable three-year period. The payouts are based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) cash flow value creation, which we define as net income plus after-tax interest expense plus depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion less capital charges (net average assets multiplied by our targeted weighted-average cost of capital), and (b) return on invested capital. The committee believes using these variables serves to align management's interests with the company's stockholders. The committee also believes these variables tie long-term compensation more directly to actual executive performance rather than measures based upon the vagaries of the stock market.

In 2005, the compensation committee also established new long-term targets and awards for a new three-year period ending December 31, 2007.

Table of Contents

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

In determining the 2006 compensation paid to Mr. O Connor, our Chief Executive Officer, the committee took into account his abilities, business experience and performance during the 2005 fiscal year. The committee's assessment of Mr. O Connor's performance included expanding our business, continuing to integrate acquired businesses, increasing profitability and maximizing stockholder value. During 2005, Mr. O Connor received an annual base salary of $840,007. Mr. O Connor also received 28,000 shares of restricted stock. Under the Executive Incentive Plan, Mr. O Connor received an annual award of $1,512,013 and a long-term award in the amount of $687,240. The committee believes that tying Mr. O Connor's remuneration to the objectives described above, including the performance of our common stock, will enhance our company's long-term performance and stability by providing Mr. O Connor with an incentive to meet these objectives.

Compensation Deduction Limitation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a limitation on the deductibility of nonperformance-based compensation in excess of $1 million paid to named executive officers. The committee believes that the company should be able to continue to manage its executive compensation program for named executive officers so as to preserve the related federal income tax deductions.

Summary

The committee believes that the company's executive compensation policies and programs serve the interests of the stockholders and the company effectively. The committee believes that the compensation packages provided to our named executive officers provide motivation for executives to contribute to the company's overall success and enhance stockholder value. The committee will continue to monitor the effectiveness of the company's compensation programs and will recommend changes, when appropriate, to meet the company's needs.

- (1) The bonus payments earned for each year as reported above are paid at the beginning of the following year. Total compensation each year for tax purposes is based on cash paid, not earned, during the year.
- (2) Amount for 2005 consists of $12,434 for financial planning services provided to Mr. O Connor and $63,840 for the incremental cost to provide company aircraft to Mr. O Connor for his personal travel. Amount for 2004 consists of $9,180 for financial planning services provided to Mr. O Connor and $52,080 for the incremental cost to provide company aircraft to Mr. O Connor for his personal travel. Under board policy, for security reasons the company-owned aircraft is made available to Mr. O Connor for both business and personal travel. We report the incremental cost to the company of any such personal travel based on the cost of fuel, crew travel expenses, on-board catering, landing fees, trip-related hangar/parking costs and smaller variable costs. Since the company-owned aircraft are used primarily for business travel, we do not include the fixed costs that do not change based on usage, such as pilots' salaries, the purchase costs of the company-owned aircraft, and the cost of maintenance not related to trips. Our valuation of personal use of aircraft as set forth herein is calculated in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission guidance, which may not be the same as valuation under applicable tax regulations. The total value of perquisites to Mr. O Connor in 2003 was less than $50,000.

Shares of restricted stock that are granted in lieu of salary increases vest on the first calendar day of the year following the date of grant. Annual grants of restricted stock vest 25% in each of the four years following the date of grant subject to vesting acceleration based on our achievement of annual performance goals that are established in connection with annual awards under our Executive Incentive Plan. Deferred stock units are deferred until Mr. Hudson's board service ends. The aggregate holdings (vested and unvested) and market value of restricted stock (or, in the case of Mr. Hudson, deferred stock units) held on December 31, 2005 by the individuals listed in this table are: Mr. O Connor, 55,000 shares/$2,065,250; Mr. Hudson, 7,000 shares/$262,850; Mr. Cordesman, 35,500 shares/$1,333,025; Mr. Holmes, 35,500 shares/$1,333,025; and Mr. Barclay, 35,500 shares/$1,333,025. Dividends and dividend equivalent payments are paid on shares of restricted stock and deferred stock units, respectively.

Stock Incentive Plan

In July 1998, we adopted the Republic Services, Inc. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, which was amended and restated on March 6, 2002 and further amended on January 29, 2004 and February 10, 2006. As amended and restated to date, the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan provides for the grant of options to purchase shares of common stock, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and deferred stock to employees and non-employee directors at the discretion of our board of directors. We have reserved 27,000,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan.

As of March 14, 2006, we had options, restricted stock and deferred stock units to purchase 7,609,527 shares of our common stock outstanding under our 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. During 2006, we have granted options to purchase 921,500 shares of our common stock, 85,000 shares of restricted stock and 24,000 deferred stock units. 3,331,260 shares remain available for grants and awards under our 1998 Stock Incentive Plan.

Executive Incentive Plan

The Executive Incentive Plan authorizes the granting of annual awards and long-term awards to executive officers selected from time to time by the compensation committee to participate in the plan. Annual awards are designed to recognize the annual achievement by a participant of short-term goals and objectives of the company. Long-term awards are designed to recognize the impact of the participant upon the achievement by the company of longer term success in enhancing shareholder values.

Annual Awards. Our executive officers are eligible to receive annual awards under our Executive Incentive Plan based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) earnings per share and (b) free cash flow. Free cash flow is defined as cash provided by operating activities less purchases of property and equipment, plus proceeds from the sale of property and equipment.

Long-Term Awards. Long-term awards under the Executive Incentive Plan are based on three-year rolling performance periods of three calendar years each. A new performance period begins on January 1 of each year, and payouts with respect to each performance period are scheduled following the end of each applicable three-year period. The payouts are based upon achieving predetermined levels of (a) cash flow value creation, which we define as net income plus after-tax interest expense plus depreciation, depletion, amortization and accretion less capital charges (net average assets multiplied by our targeted weighted-average cost of capital), and (b) return on invested capital. The committee believes using these variables serves to align management's interests with the company's stockholders. The committee also believes these variables tie long-term compensation more directly to actual executive performance rather than measures based upon the vagaries of the stock market.

401(k) Plan

We have adopted a 401(k) Savings and Retirement Plan that qualifies for preferential tax treatment under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the plan, all of our employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement may participate in the plan following 90 days of service with the company. In 2006, our employees are permitted to contribute up to 25% of their eligible compensation (up to a maximum contribution of $15,000 per year, and an additional $5,000 for employees who are 50 years old or older). We match the first three percent and one-half of the next two percent of an employee's contributions under the plan in cash. The match is made on a quarterly basis and is fully vested when made.

Deferred Compensation Plan

In 2003, we amended the Republic Services, Inc. Deferred Compensation Plan. This plan provides an opportunity for our key employees and non-employee directors to make pre-tax payroll-deducted salary, stock grant and/or annual or long-term award deferrals to the respective plans at the beginning of each plan year at any percentage up to 90% for every compensation category, and for some compensation categories, up to 100%.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan

We have adopted the Republic Services, Inc. Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan. All of our employees who work at least 20 hours per week and have worked for us at least five months in a calendar year may voluntarily participate in the plan. During specified offering periods, these eligible employees may, through payroll deductions, buy whole and fractional shares of our common stock at a purchase price equal to 95% of the fair market value of our common stock on the last day of the offering period. Employees may sell the common stock purchased under the plan after they have owned the shares for at least 180 consecutive days.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The following statement made by the audit committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under either of these acts.

Management is responsible for the company's internal controls, financial reporting processes and compliance with laws and regulations and ethical business standards. The independent auditor is responsible for performing an independent audit of the company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report thereon. The audit committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes on behalf of the board of directors.

In this context, the audit committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The audit committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).

In addition, the audit committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with them their independence from the company and its management. The audit committee has considered whether the independent auditors' provision of audit-related and other non-audit services to the company is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence.

Finally, the audit committee has evaluated the independent auditors' role in performing an independent audit of the company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and applicable professional and firm auditing standards, including quality control standards. The audit committee has received assurances from the independent auditors that the audit was subject to its quality control system for its accounting and auditing practice in the United States. The independent auditors have further assured the audit committee that its engagement was conducted in compliance with professional standards and that there was appropriate continuity of personnel working on the audit, availability of national office consultation to conduct the relevant portions of the audit, and availability of personnel at foreign affiliates to conduct the relevant portions of the audit.

In reliance on the reviews, discussions and evaluations referred to above, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. By recommending to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be so included, the audit committee is not opining on the accuracy, completeness or presentation of the information contained in the audited financial statements.
