Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In anticipation of Larry A. Caldwell's mandated retirement from the Camco Financial Corporation (Camco) Board of Directors in November 2006 when he reaches the age of 70, the Compensation Committee decided on July 25, 2006 to permit Mr. Caldwell to maintain upon his retirement the entire $300,000 death benefit associated with the flexible payment universal life insurance policy purchased on Mr. Caldwell's life (the Split-Dollar Plan). Currently, the Split Dollar Plan is structured so that a beneficiary named by the employee will receive two times the employee's base salary for the 12 months preceding the month in which the employee dies. The balance of the proceeds are then payable to Camco. The Compensation Committee's decision permits the entire $300,000 death benefit to be payable to the beneficiary selected by Mr. Caldwell.

The Compensation Committee also decided to transfer to Mr. Caldwell the key man life insurance policy that was purchased on his life (the Key Man Policy). The Key Man Policy provides a death benefit of $250,000. Camco will also pay on Mr. Caldwell's behalf the Key Man Policy's annual premium of $1,057 that is due in August 2007.

Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

(d) On July 25, 2006, the Board of Directors of Camco increased the number of directors from eleven to twelve and elected Edward D. Goodyear for a term expiring in 2007 to fill the vacancy created by the increase. Mr. Goodyear was appointed to the Audit & Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors.

A copy of the press release issued by Camco to announce the election of the new director is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.
