PROXY STATEMENT

2003 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD NOVEMBER 7, 2003

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors of AMERCO, a Nevada corporation (the Company), for use at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Friday, November 7, 2003 at 11:00 a.m. at the Airport Plaza Hotel, 1981 Terminal Way, Reno, Nevada 89502 (the Meeting), and at any adjournment or adjournments thereof.

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on September 10, 2003 (the Record Date) are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. At the close of business on the Record Date, the Company had outstanding 14,959,004 shares of its Common Stock, $0.25 par value, and 5,662,495 shares of its Series A Common Stock, $0.25 par value (collectively, the Common Stock).

One-third of the outstanding shares entitled to vote and to be represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting will constitute a quorum for the conduct of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders for a vote. Except as otherwise stated herein, provided a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the matter is required to approve any matter.

Each stockholder is entitled to one vote per share of Common Stock for the election of directors and on all other matters that may properly be brought before the Meeting. If the accompanying proxy is signed and returned, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with any directions on the proxy. If a proxy does not specify how the shares represented thereby are to be voted, it is intended that it will be voted for the director nominees named herein. Any stockholder giving the enclosed form of proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted at the Meeting by filing with the Secretary of the Company a document revoking the proxy or by submitting a proxy bearing a later date. The revocation of the proxy will not affect any vote taken prior to such revocation. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy are first being mailed to stockholders on or about October 1, 2003.

The solicitation of all proxies will be made primarily by mail and the cost of such solicitation will be borne by the Company. The Company will reimburse fiduciaries, nominees, and others for their out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners. Proxies may be solicited by telephone, telegraph, facsimile transmission, and in person by employees of the Company.

Subject to applicable law, if any other matters properly come before the Meeting, the person named in the enclosed proxy will vote thereon in accordance with his judgment.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Board of Directors consists of eight directors. The Company's Articles of Incorporation provide for the division of the Board of Directors into four classes, designated Class I, Class II, Class III, and Class IV. Subject to applicable law, each class shall consist, as nearly as may be possible, of one-fourth of the total number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors. The term of each directorship is four years and the terms of the four classes are staggered in a manner so that in most cases only one class is elected by the stockholders annually.

At the Meeting, two Class I directors will be elected to serve until the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. It is the intention of the individual named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote for the two nominees named below unless instructed to the contrary. However, if any nominee named herein becomes unavailable to serve at the time of election (which is not anticipated), and, as a consequence, other nominees are designated, the person named in the proxy or other substitutes shall have the discretion or authority to vote or refrain from voting in accordance with his judgment with respect to other nominees. The two Class I director nominees receiving the largest number of votes in favor of their election will be elected as Class I directors.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the shares represented at the meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, provided that a quorum is present. Votes may be cast FOR the nominees or WITHHELD. In addition, a stockholder may indicate that he or she is voting FOR the nominee except for any nominee(s) specified in writing on the proxy card. The two Class I nominees who receive the greatest number of votes cast FOR the election of such nominees shall be elected as directors. As a result, any vote other than a vote FOR the nominee will have the practical effect of voting AGAINST the nominee. An abstention will have the same effect as voting WITHHELD for election of directors, and a broker non-vote will not be treated as voting in person or by proxy on the proposal.

BOARD REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

While the Company has established a Compensation Committee, the entire Board of Directors reviewed and determined the amount of compensation paid to the Chairman of the Board and President for fiscal 2003. The determination was subjective and not subject to a specific criteria. Although the Board of Directors had primary authority with respect to compensation decisions for the Company's other executive officers during fiscal 2003, the Chairman of the Board and President has historically and continued to make these decisions with the counsel of individual Board members, subject to the ability of the full Board to revise or override these decisions. Executive compensation was set at levels designed to retain the Company's executive officers and was based on subjective factors such as his perception of each officer's performance and changes in functional responsibility.

In addition to its involvement in executive compensation matters as described above, the Board of Directors determines the amount, if any, of the Company's contribution pursuant to the AMERCO Employee Savings, Profit Sharing and Employee Stock Ownership Plan.

Edward J., Mark V., and James P. Shoen are brothers. William E. Carty is the uncle of Edward J. and Mark V. Shoen. M. Frank Lyons was married to William E. Carty's sister and the aunt of Edward J. and Mark V. Shoen until her death in 1992.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On December 23, 2002, Mark V. Shoen, President, U-Haul Phoenix Operations and a significant stockholder of the Company, purchased a condominium in Phoenix, Arizona from Oxford. The purchase price was $279,573, which was in excess of the appraised value.

During fiscal 2003, U-Haul purchased $2.1 million of printing from Form Builders, Inc. Mark V. Shoen, his daughter and Edward J. Shoen's sons are major stockholders of Form Builders, Inc. Edward J. Shoen is Chairman of the Board of Directors and President of the Company and is a significant stockholder of the Company. Mark V. Shoen is President, U-Haul Phoenix Operations and is a significant stockholder of the Company. The Company ceased doing business with Form Builders, Inc. on April 18, 2003.

During fiscal 2003, Sam Shoen, a son of Edward J. Shoen, was employed by U-Haul as project group supervisor. Mr. Shoen was paid an aggregate salary and bonus of $77,327 for his services during the fiscal year.

During fiscal 2003, a subsidiary of the Company held various senior and junior unsecured notes of SAC Holdings Corporation and its subsidiaries (SAC Holdings). Substantially all of the equity interest of SAC Holdings is owned by Mark V. Shoen, a significant shareholder and executive officer of the Company. The Company does not have an equity ownership interest in SAC Holdings, except for minority investments made by RepWest and Oxford in a SAC Holdings-controlled limited partnership which holds Canadian self-storage properties. The senior unsecured notes of SAC Holdings that the Company holds rank equal in right of payment with the notes of certain senior mortgage holders, but junior to the extent of the collateral securing the applicable mortgages and junior to the extent of the cash flow waterfalls that favor the senior mortgage holders. The Company received cash interest payments of $26.6 million from SAC Holdings during fiscal year 2003. The notes receivable balance outstanding at March 31, 2003 was, in the aggregate, $394.2 million. The largest aggregate amount outstanding during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003 was $407.4 million. At March 31, 2003, SAC Holdings' notes and loans payable to third parties totaled $589.0 million. Interest on the senior and junior notes accrues at rates ranging from 6.5% to 13%.

Interest accrues on the outstanding principal balance of senior notes of SAC Holdings that the Company holds at a fixed rate and is paid on a monthly basis.

Interest accrues on the outstanding principal balance of junior notes of SAC Holdings that the Company holds at a stated rate of basic interest. A fixed portion of that basic interest is paid on a monthly basis. Additional interest is paid on the same payment date based on the difference between the amount of remaining basic interest and an amount equal to a specified percentage of the net cash flow before interest expense generated by the underlying property minus the sum of the principal and interest due on the senior notes of SAC Holdings relating to that property and a multiple of the fixed portion of basic interest paid on that monthly payment date.

The latter amount is referred to as the cash flow-based calculation.

To the extent that this cash flow-based calculation exceeds the amount of remaining basic interest, contingent interest equal to that excess and the amount of remaining basic interest are paid on the same monthly date as the fixed portion of basic interest. To the extent that the cash flow-based calculation is less than the amount of remaining basic interest, the additional interest payable on the applicable monthly date is limited to the amount of that cash flow-based calculation. In such a case, the excess of the remaining basic interest over the cash flow-based calculation is deferred and all amounts so deferred bear the stated rate of basic interest until maturity of the junior note.

In addition, subject to certain contingencies, the junior notes provide that the holder of the note is entitled to receive 90% of the appreciation realized upon, among other things, the sale of such property by SAC Holdings. To date, no such properties have been sold by SAC Holdings.

The Company currently manages the self-storage properties owned by SAC Holdings pursuant to a standard form of management agreement with each SAC Holdings subsidiary, under which the Company receives a management fee equal to 6% of the gross receipts. The Company received management fees of $12.3 million during fiscal year 2003. This management fee is consistent with the fees received for other properties the Company manages for third parties.

RepWest and Oxford currently hold a 46% limited partnership interest in Securespace Limited Partnership ( Securespace ), a Nevada limited partnership. A SAC Holdings subsidiary serves as the general partner of Securespace and owns a 1% interest. Another SAC Holdings subsidiary owns the remaining 53% limited partnership interest in Securespace. Securespace was formed by SAC Holdings to be the owner of various Canadian self-storage properties.

During fiscal year 2003, the Company leased space for marketing company offices, vehicle repair shops and hitch installation centers in 35 locations owned by subsidiaries of SAC Holdings. Total lease payments pursuant to such leases were $2.1 million during fiscal year 2003. The terms of the leases are similar to the terms of leases for other properties owned by unrelated parties that are leased to the Company.

At March 31, 2003, subsidiaries of SAC Holdings acted as U-Haul independent dealers. The financial and other terms of the dealership contracts with subsidiaries of SAC Holdings are substantially identical to the terms of those with the Company's other independent dealers. During fiscal 2003, the Company paid subsidiaries of SAC Holdings $27.7 million in commissions pursuant to such dealership contracts.

The transactions discussed above involving SAC Holdings have all been eliminated from the Company's consolidated financial statements. Although these transactions have been eliminated for financial statement reporting purposes, except for minority investments made by RepWest and Oxford in Securespace, the Company has not had any equity ownership interest in SAC Holdings.

SAC Holdings were established in order to acquire self-storage properties which are being managed by the Company pursuant to management agreements. The sale of self-storage properties by the Company to SAC Holdings has in the past provided significant cash flows to the Company and the Company's outstanding loans to SAC Holdings entitle the Company to participate in SAC Holdings' excess cash flows (after senior debt service).

Management believes that its sales of self-storage properties to SAC Holdings over the past several years provided a unique structure for the Company to earn rental revenues from the SAC Holdings self-storage properties that the Company manages and participate in SAC Holdings' excess cash flows as described above.

Although the Board of Directors of the appropriate subsidiary which was a party to each transaction with SAC Holdings approved such transaction at the time it was completed, the Company did not seek approval by AMERCO's Board of Directors for such transactions. However, AMERCO's Board of Directors, including the independent members, was made aware of and received periodic updates regarding such transactions from time to time. All future real estate transactions with SAC Holdings that involve the Company or any of its subsidiaries will have the prior approval of AMERCO's Board of Directors, even if it is not legally required, including a majority of the independent members of AMERCO's Board of Directors.

In connection with transactions described above regarding parts, tools and printing services, the Internal Audit Department of U-Haul periodically tests pricing against competitive third party bids for fairness.

Management believes that the foregoing transactions were consummated on terms equivalent to those that prevail in arm's-length transactions.

CHAPTER 11 FILING

On June 20, 2003, the Company filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court, District of Nevada (the "Bankruptcy Court") (Case No. 0352103). Amerco Real Estate Company filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 on August 13, 2003. The Company's other subsidiaries were not included in either of the filings. The Company and Amerco Real Estate Company will continue to manage their properties and operate their businesses as debtor-in-possession under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

DERIVATIVE ACTION

On September 24, 2002, Paul F. Shoen filed a derivative action in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, Washoe County, captioned Paul F. Shoen vs. SAC Holding Corporation et al, CV02-05602, seeking damages and equitable relief on behalf of the Company from SAC Holdings and certain current and former members of the Company's Board of Directors, including Edward J. Shoen, Mark V. Shoen and James P. Shoen as defendants. The Company is named a nominal defendant for purposes of the derivative action. The complaint alleges breach of fiduciary duty, self-dealing, usurpation of corporate opportunities, wrongful interference with prospective economic advantage and unjust enrichment and seeks the unwinding of sales of self-storage properties by subsidiaries of the Company to SAC Holdings over the last several years. The complaint seeks a declaration that such transfers are void as well as unspecified damages. On October 28, 2002, the Company, the Shoen directors, the non-Shoen directors and SAC Holdings filed Motions to Dismiss the complaint. In addition, on October 28, 2002, Ron Belec filed a derivative action in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, Washoe County, captioned Ron Belec vs. William E. Carty, et al, CV 02-06331 and on January 16, 2003, M.S. Management Company, Inc. filed a derivative action in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, Washoe County, captioned M.S. Management Company, Inc. vs. William E. Carty, et. al, CV 03-00386. Two additional derivative suits also were filed against these parties. These additional suits are substantially similar to the Paul F. Shoen derivative action. The five suits assert virtually identical claims. In fact, three of the five plaintiffs are parties who are working closely together and chose to file the same claims multiple times. The court consolidated all five complaints before dismissing them on May 8, 2003. Plaintiffs have filed a notice of appeal. These lawsuits falsely alleged that the Company's Board lacked independence. In reaching its decision to dismiss these claims, the court determined that the Company's Board of Directors had the requisite level of independence required in order to have these claims resolved by the Board.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The principal independent accounting firm utilized by the Company during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003 was BDO Seidman, LLP ( BDO ), independent certified public accountants. It is contemplated that BDO will be retained as the principal accounting firm to be utilized by the Company for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2004. Representatives of BDO will not be present at the Meeting.

Audit Fees. BDO billed the Company an aggregate of $2,292,169 for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003 and its reviews of the Company's financial statements included in the Company's Forms 10-Q during fiscal 2003. BDO billed the Company an aggregate of $1,320,000 for professional services rendered for the re-audit of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2001 and March 31, 2002.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. During the year ended March 31, 2003, BDO provided no services and therefore billed no fees to the Company in connection with financial information systems design and implementation.

Audit-Related Fees. During the year ended March 31, 2003, BDO billed the Company an aggregate of $495,319 for other services rendered, primarily in connection with a note offering circular and accounting advisory services.

Tax and Other Fees. Other than the fees relating to the services described above, there were no additional fees billed by BDO for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003.

The Audit Committee has determined that the provision of services by BDO described in the preceding paragraphs were compatible with maintaining BDO's independence as the Company's principal accountant.

On July 17, 2002, the Company dismissed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ( PwC ) as the Company's independent auditors. On August 8, 2002, the Company engaged BDO as the Company's independent auditing firm.

On July 23, 2002, the Company disclosed the following:

That the reports of PwC on the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2002 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

That the decision to dismiss PwC was recommended by the Company's audit committee and authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company.

That for the Company's fiscal years ended March 31, 2002 and 2001 and through July 17, 2002, there were no disagreements with PwC on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of PwC would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in its report.

That for the Company's fiscal years ended March 31, 2002 and 2001 and through July 17, 2002, there had occurred none of the reportable events listed in Item 304 (a)(1)(v)(A-D) of Regulation S-K.

That PwC indicated to the Company that material weaknesses exist in certain aspects of the Company's internal controls that were noted during PwC's audits of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2001 and 2002.

That PwC recommended examination and augmentation, as appropriate, of certain aspects of the Company's internal control procedures, including the following: (1) Responsibility for each general ledger account should be assigned to an appropriate person, reconciliations (particularly with respect to intercompany accounts with SAC Holdings, inventory, and fixed assets) should be performed on a monthly basis, and the financial reporting manager should ensure that all accounts with variances at month-end are investigated and corrected within an appropriate timeframe; (2) The internal control structure and monitoring process of management should be strengthened to help detect misstated account balances on a timely basis. Corrections of items should be made on a timely basis, as well, to ensure proper quarterly and annual reporting; (3) Access to the general ledger should be limited to a few select individuals, with the appropriate level of authority, who do not possess incompatible job responsibilities. Further, journal entries should be reviewed and approved to ensure that each adjustment is supported by appropriate documentation and that each entry has been reflected on the subsidiary ledger, if applicable; (4) Controls relating to inventory costing, including LIFO reserve calculations, manufacturing and overhead costs, and retention of records should be improved; and (5) Position vacancies should be filled in a timely manner with competent personnel. Documentation of job responsibilities, processes, etc. should be prepared to ensure efficient and accurate knowledge transfer. In addition, cross training of employees and functions should occur to strengthen the control environment and to minimize disruptions in the event of employee turnover.

That the Audit Committee had discussed these matters with PwC and the Company had begun addressing these matters.

That the Company had authorized PwC to respond fully to any inquiries concerning these matters from the auditor selected to replace PwC.

That the Company had received a letter from PwC stating that PwC agreed with the statements reported above.

Subsequently, the Report of Independent Accountants on the financial statements of the Company for the year ended March 31, 2002 issued by PwC on January 6, 2003 included a going concern explanatory paragraph. Such explanatory paragraph expressed substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern due, in part, to AMERCO's default (either directly or indirectly as a result of cross-default) of approximately $1,175.4 million in current obligations.

On May 7, 2003 PwC notified the Company that the report referred to in the preceding paragraph, that is dual dated September 23, 2002, except notes 1, 21, and 22, which are dated January 6, 2003, should no longer be associated with the financial statements (a) of AMERCO and its subsidiaries, SAC Holding Corporation and its subsidiaries, and SAC Holding Corporation II and its subsidiaries at March 31, 2002, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended and (b) of AMERCO and its subsidiaries and SAC Holding Corporation and its subsidiaries at March 31, 2001, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended March 31, 2001.

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership of, and transactions in, the Company's securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such directors, executive officers and 10% stockholders are also required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms received by it, the Company believes that during fiscal 2003, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, officers and 10% stockholders were complied with.
