Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective October 25, 2006, the Board of Directors of CIGNA Corporation, upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee, approved amendments to the By-Laws to adopt a majority vote standard for uncontested elections of directors. Under Article II, Section 2 of the By-Laws, a director nominee is elected if the number of votes cast “for” the nominee exceeds the number of votes cast “against” the nominee. In contested elections, those in which a shareholder has nominated a person for election to the board, the voting standard will continue to be a plurality of votes cast.

In conjunction with the adoption of the majority vote standard, the Board also amended the Board Practices to require the Board to nominate for election, and to fill Board vacancies and new directorships, only with nominees who agree that, after they are elected to the Board, they will tender resignations conditioned on: (a) the failure to achieve the required vote at any future meeting at which they face election; and (b) the Board’s acceptance of their resignation following that election. That resignation cannot be withdrawn unless the Board eliminates the majority voting standard. The Corporate Governance Committee will act on an expedited basis to determine whether to accept the resignation and will submit the recommendation for prompt consideration by the Board. The Board expects the Director whose resignation is under consideration to abstain from participating in any decision regarding that resignation.

Also, in connection with the adoption of the majority vote standard, the Board amended Article II, Section 11 of the By-Laws to require stockholder nominees for director election to notify CIGNA whether or not the nominees intend to tender the same type of resignation required of the Board’s director nominees and directors appointed to the Board.

The foregoing description of the amendments to CIGNA's By-Laws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the by-laws, as amended, a copy which is attached as Exhibit 3 and incorporated herein by reference.
